

VOLUME 5: REBEL PAW

OPEN THE PIT

We are so happy to rock out with everyone this weekend, but to us, this theme isn't only about sharing pins and patches to fill each other's battle vests and skanking in the pit (although we will be). There's nothing more punk than organizing a strong supportive community, uplifting and cheering for indie creators, and proudly celebrating our "weird" counterculture together. That's why we donate to disaster relief funds, buy backpacks for local kids, and partner with charities that help marginalized and disadvantaged groups in Oklahoma on top of hosting this fantastic event. The only way we can make any of this happen is thanks to you!

Whether it's by simply registering, participating in our charity partner events, buying some handmade arts and crafts, dancing with our musicians, tipping the wonderful drag performers, or by volunteering to join the AnEx team, I hope you feel proud of your contributions to your community.

Please thank our staff and our sponsors this weekend for their dedication to the cause. We want nothing more than to be able to see you all happy, together, and proud of who you are in a safe environment. It will always be our purpose.

Keep on rocking in the free world!

Alright, you mangy mutts and rebellious rogues!

Welcome to AnthroExpo- the most punk convention this side of anarchy! Get ready for a weekend of dancing, charity, and maybe a little bit of mayhem. We're gonna tear down the walls, raise the roof, and unleash the inner beast in all of us. So strap on your spikes, fluff up your tails, donate to our rad charity partner, and let's get this party started! And please don't forget to thank the members of our awesome crew for all of the time they have put into making AnthroExpo an unforgettable ride!

FOR THE ONES WE LOST

When someone leaves our life, they leave behind echoes, a shadow of themselves. Our dearest friends who are no longer physically with us live on in our memories. Every sunset, favorite song, or meal shared in joy or sorrow brings back echoes of our love. Here in Oklahoma, across the fandom, and in our own families, we join together to reflect, to mourn, and to remember people who cannot stand at our sides today. We honor them, through every breath and every step.

In Memory,
Mark Merlino (Sy Sable) 2024

If you've lost someone this year, you are not alone, and we are here for you. Your friends are here for you. In a way, those passed on are too. Gone, but never forgotten.

For those that we have lost who were dear to our community and loved by many, we invite you to remember their bright personalities and contributions at our memorial, located across from Info Desk.

2024 Community Outreach

- ★ With your help in attending AnEx 2024 in January, we helped raise $14,000 for Pivot OKC in helping disadvantaged youth in our state!
- ★ In August, Scissortail Fandoms Inc. helped donate $360 dollars worth of backpacks for Tulsa-area students!
- ★ In October, Scissortail Fandoms Inc. donated $500 dollars to the BeLoved Asheville Relief fund to help individuals affected by Hurricane Helene in the Appalachia region!

In 2025, we hope to follow the path we have created and help bring awareness and support to our community and others in need. Thank you for your support, and we can't wait to see what 2025 brings us!
