

AURAWRA

THE LOST EMPIRE

From the Chairdragon

Hello and welcome, intrepid explorers and adventurers both new and returning!

It seems that not so long ago I stood before many of you at the closing ceremony of our inaugural event in 2022, spinning you the tale that would lead us into this year. It was elating to see the positive response from those present and humbling to see the support we've had from all of you in continuing our efforts to bring you another convention. It is my solemn hope that we can continue to do this for long into the future. With the rate that the fandom continues to grow and evolve, even after the pandemic, we certainly have our work cut out for us!

I have spent much of my life with a love of fiction, of a story unfolding, and of the idea of being part of some grand adventure (often with mystery, action, and obviously dragons, but that's just personal taste). The fandom opens so much potential to mix the real with the spiritual and the fantastical, to allow our minds to soar and create. In a way, we have tailored our themes to tell you a story, to bring you an adventure, and hopefully you enjoy becoming a part of it.

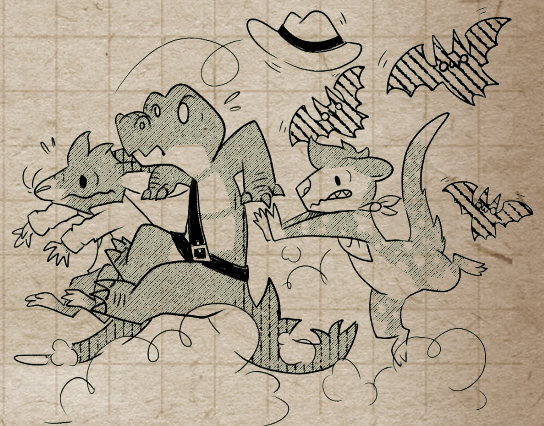

Our inaugural year was the beginning of an adventure, sailing south into the unknown under the skies of the Aurora Australis. But the question is, why are we following this rag tag group of anthropomorphic explorers into the Antarctic ice? What secrets are hidden in the labyrinthine edifice you have been led to, hidden under the blue-white glaciers? Who were the inhabitants of this civilisation lost to time and myth? Only by gathering your courage, your wit and your allies about you can you traverse the dangers ahead to delve further into the mystery that is the Lost Empire.

Venture well, stay safe, and look out for one another.

Terms and Conditions

Legal Stuff

By registering to attend Aurawra, all guests agree to indemnify and hold harmless Aurawra and New South Wales Anthro Group (NSWAG), its staff, volunteers, agents, representatives and all other employees from any claim for personal injuries or other damages arising out of any participation in Aurawra events, activities, or attendance to the convention itself under any circumstances, unless otherwise required by applicable law.

NSWAG reserves the right to revoke your registration and access to events or the convention space at any time, at the discretion of the convention staff.

NSWAG retains the right to change the terms and conditions without notice at any time as deemed necessary by the organisers to protect the safety and security of attendees and the event.

Badges and ID

You must be 18 years of age or older to attend Aurawra.

It is a requirement upon registering for the event that you provide your full and correct name and provide legal proof of identification upon picking up your badge. NSWAG reserves the right for Aurawra staff to refuse event access if you cannot provide identification.

Attendee badges are to be worn at all events and within the event space. NSWAG retains the right for Aurawra staff to revoke any attendee access to an event if they cannot provide their badge when asked to do so.

A badge is only valid for the person it was issued to and may not be shared.

Changing information on your badge, or deliberately obscuring your badge is not allowed and may result in you being asked to leave the event, and possibly banned from future events.

NSWAG retains ownership of all attendee badges until the conclusion of the Sunday night event, and may cancel the badge or withhold it if your registration is revoked for any reason.

General rules

Please treat each other respectfully and politely. Harassment of any kind including but not limited to physical assault, battery, deliberate intimidation, stalking or any unwelcome physical interactions will not be tolerated.

Always follow the directions of convention staff and volunteers.

Any damages incurred to an event space or the belongings of other staff, attendees or persons (including yourself) as a direct result of your actions are not covered by NSWAG or the convention. You will be expected to make reparations and pay for damages if you cause them.

Be aware that the hotel bar and lobby areas are all public spaces and as such will be accessible to non-convention goers. Please ensure to be respectful, give them their space and give them the best possible impression of our fandom. Registration to Aurawra is general admission and not a guarantee of access to all content hosted. The schedule may change due to unforeseen circumstances and space availability, and specific events may be cancelled or modified on short notice.

Media

Aurawra attendees and volunteers do not speak on behalf of the entities Aurawra and NSWAG, only members of the board of managers can make executive decisions and speak officially on behalf of Aurawra and any associated NSWAG auspiced events. Aurawra attendees and volunteers are allowed to speak of their own views and experiences, however these do not reflect on the views or goals of Aurawra or NSWAG as an entity.

Hate Speech and Symbols

Speech of any form that promotes discrimination, harassment or violence against others based on race, gender identity, sexual orientation, ethnicity, age, religion or nationality is strictly prohibited.

Symbolism attached to 'alt-right', 'alt-furry' or any other extremist groups are forbidden to be worn, shown or propagated at any NSWAG associated or auspiced events.

Hotel Rules

Attendees may not enter service areas of the hotel unless on behest of hotel staff. This includes but is not limited to backstage areas, service elevators, emergency exits or anywhere that is defined as "Staff Only".

It is strictly forbidden to throw, dangle or hang anything over any balcony, window or any elevated location in the hotel.

Consumption of any food and drink purchased outside the hotel cannot be consumed on hotel property, with the exception of your own private room.

Disabling or deliberately triggering any form of fire protection system or security system (such as smoke detectors, door alarms or sprinklers) is strictly prohibited.

No sleeping in the lobby, hallways or convention areas. If you don't have your own room, please do not attempt to stay at the hotel.

No large electrical devices or appliances are to be operated in rooms, including heating or cooling devices. Small fans, phone chargers, laptops or tablets are fine, but please don't bring anything bigger.

Sale of merchandise outside the Dealers Den is not permitted without permission from the NSWAG Board, and is not permitted in public spaces around Olympic Park or in the Hotel.

Display of Not Safe For Work (NSFW) materials is not permitted in public areas of the hotel, including but not limited to on doors, in hallways or as part of flyers, posters or stickers.

Use of stickers on any public or hotel property is prohibited and is considered vandalism. This can be reported to the local authorities.

Private gatherings in rooms are at the risk of the room owner. Complaints may lead to consequences with the hotel. NSWAG will not support you if you are evicted from the hotel for reckless behaviour.

Please endeavour to keep your rooms in a tidy state. Bag your trash and don't leave a mess. Housekeeping staff deserve respect too.

Alcohol and other Substances

If you are intoxicated and your actions become irresponsible, Aurawra staff retain the right to ask you to leave the convention space. If you refuse you will be asked to LEAVE the event and may be banned from attending further events.

Please do not bring alcoholic beverages into the convention space. Drinks bought from the hotel bar or downstairs brewery are to be consumed in their respective venues.

It is illegal in NSW to supply liquor or sell liquor to persons under the age of 18. Attendees found to be supplying or selling liquor to minors will be removed from the event and will receive a PERMANENT LIFETIME BAN from further NSWAG run and auspiced events and details will be forwarded to NSW law enforcement.

Persons found to be in possession of, partaking in or selling any illegal or controlled substances will be removed from the event and will receive a PERMANENT LIFETIME BAN from further NSWAG run or auspiced events and their details will be forwarded to NSW law enforcement.

Smoking and/or vaping is not permitted in any non-smoking areas of the hotel, including the convention floor balcony.

Behaviour & Code of Conduct

A dress code applies in all convention and hotel spaces. This means at very least a shirt, pants and some form of footwear. Areas such as the bar may include the requirement of closed footwear.

Costumes and accessories are okay to be worn in public spaces, provided they do not fall into the theme of fetish or adult-oriented materials. This includes but is not limited to:

- Full body rubber or vinyl costumes

- Costumes that are visibly "anatomically correct"

- Costumes or accessories related to age play, pet play or BDSM

- Costumes indecently revealing the wearer's own private anatomy

- Muzzles or choke collars

- Electric shock devices (visible or not)

Standard collars, decorative wristbands and sled dog harnesses are permitted when used tastefully as part of a costume.

Headwear commonly referred to as "pup hoods" are acceptable in the convention space provided they are worn in conjunction with streetwear appropriate for a public setting. Weapons, either real or fake, are not permitted. This includes but is not limited to prop weapons, replica weapons, water guns, foam guns or silly string.

If you are uncertain of something you wish to wear or bring to the convention space, please visit con-ops first and the staff will be happy to answer any queries.

Guests of Honour

WICKEDINSIGNIA

Logan Preshaw (aka WickedInsignia) is a Melbourne-based Art Director, Illustrator and Concept Artist in the film and games industry.

He's worked with blockbuster clients such as Riot Games, Blizzard, and Weta Workshop on a variety of triple-A projects that include Valorant, World of Warcraft, Men in Black 4 and Avatar 2. He currently works with the LA-based West Studio.

His approach to art draws from many diverse inspirations, not least the furry community. Although a long-time outside appreciator he's found himself more and more entwined with the rich art, fearless personal expression and humanist values the furry community best represents. He's a vocal supporter of artist rights and industry ethics, and hopes to further the personal enrichment that art brings to people through his personal work.

Kusaki is a graphic designer, DJ, twitch streamer and puma. They have been in the fandom since about 2017 when their partner introduced them to it. Kusaki can be seen around cons fursuiting or online on twitch either streaming or in other chats! They are a vtuber playing games both new and old as well their other passion; DJing. Kusaki loves music and it's another way to creatively explore their interests in life. Their day to day job is graphic design which they've been breaking into by working for and with furry artists. They hope to see you around the con, come say hi, or on the dance floor where they'll spinning some tunes.

Our Year Two Charity

THE GENDER CENTRE INC

Established in 1983, The Gender Centre is one of Australia's leading welfare organisations for the trans & gender diverse community, and currently provides over 90% of all trans specific services in NSW. This includes counselling and psychological support for trans & gender diverse people (including children, parents and carers), crisis accommodation, regional and rural casework, family support, advocacy, education, training, and a wealth of downloadable resources. Aurawra is proud to stand with The Gender Centre as our charity partner.

"The most important support we can give our community is the resilience to be able to overcome the discrimination, negativity and isolation that can come from the day-to-day wear and tear of being gender diverse. We are here to remind them how valuable, resourceful and capable they really are."

Fursuit Walk

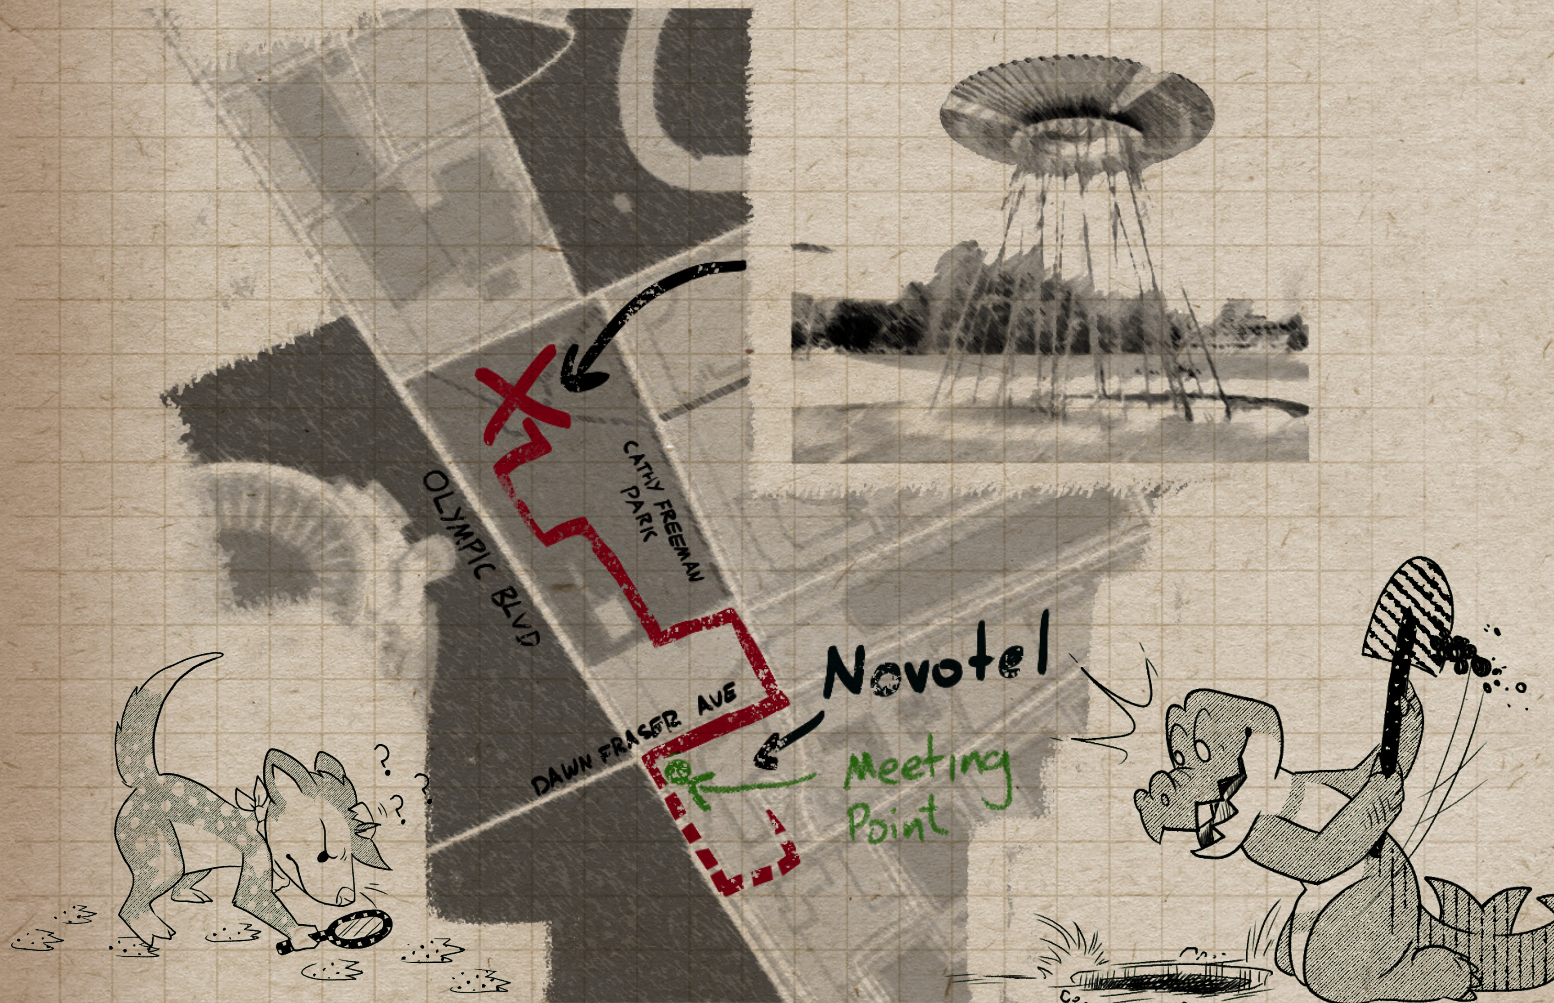

Fig 1 - An Ancient Ritualistic Pilgrimage

Get your fur brushes out and put on your best faces for our fursuit walk and photoshoot.

Meet on the corner of Olympic Boulevard & Dawn Fraser Avenue at 1.30pm for our colourful cavalcade.

If you're not sure where to go, our helpful volunteers will guide you to the muster point.

We'll take a gentle stroll into Cathy Freeman Park and finish up at The Olympic Cauldron for a photoshoot.

The entire walk is wheelchair accessible and we will have plenty of volunteers around to help guide you on your way.

In the event of wet weather we will hold a Fursuit Photoshoot in the Freshwater Ballroom, followed by a session of Fursuit Games.

Meet Our Mascots

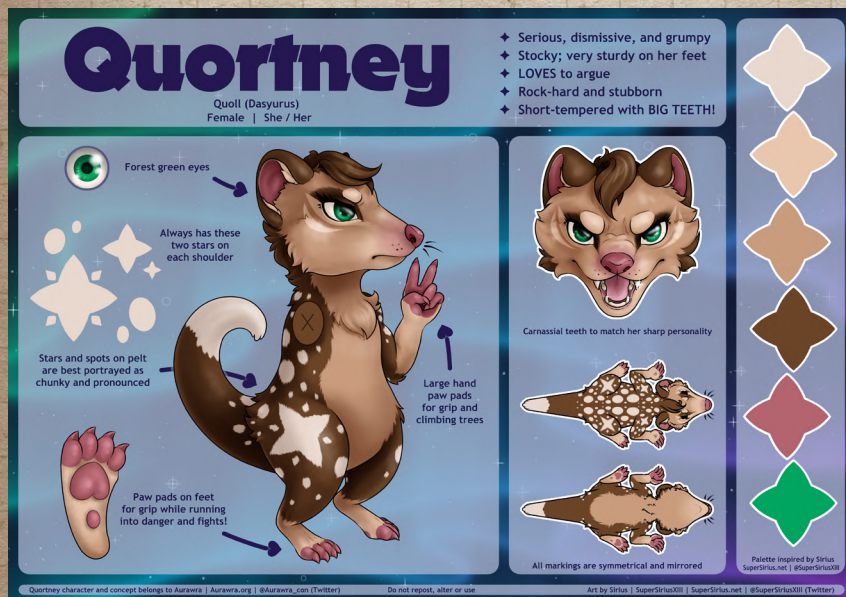

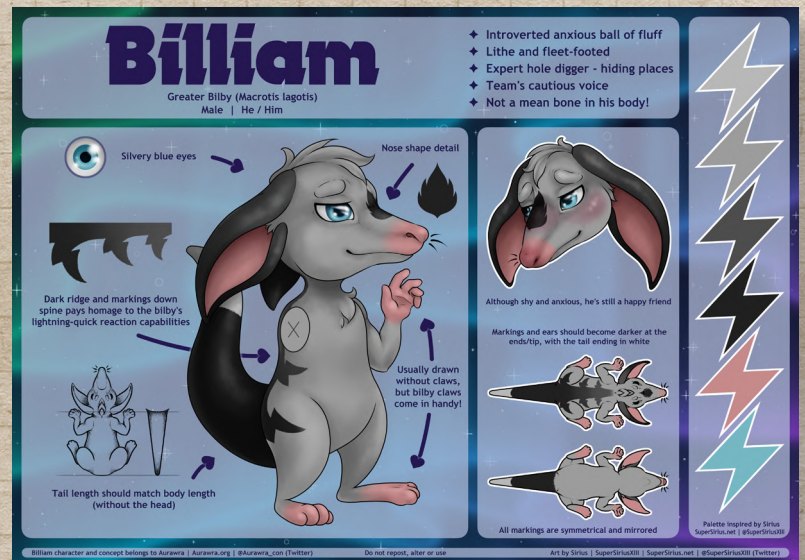

Name: Aster
Species: Saltwater Crocodile
Place of Birth: Northern Australia
Pronouns: They/Theirs

A is for Aster, awesomeness, and adventure! This happy-go-lucky crocodile is highly approachable with a relaxed, friendly personality, and can most often be described as cool, calm, and curious. They also stand with an air of confidence which makes them particularly ideal for leading the adventures they embark upon, and while they remain collected most of the time, they're also prone to being a bit snappy every now and again. Aster also happens to have a voracious appetite, and particularly loves snacking... OFTEN.

Name: Billiam
Species: Greater Bilby
Place of Birth: The Red-Hot Desert Heart of Australia
Pronouns: He/His

If not for the size of his ears, which are always pricked and alert to his surroundings, Billiam would be the shortest member of the trio. While one might mistake his hypervigilance for cowardice, the truth is that Billiam is just nervous, shy, easily startled. He is a herbivorous marsupial and such traits are instinctive and highly advantageous to his species. He tends to consider situations with much less volume and far more caution than his peers, which means his carefully thought-out insights often provide them with superior reasoning, understanding, and safety. His soft personality and timid voice also give him the capacity to more easily disarm their arguments..

Name: Quortney
Species: Eastern Quoll
Place of Birth: West coast of Tasmania
Pronouns: She/Her

The only thing small about Quortney is her stature. With a passionate temper like lightning, a mouth full of dagger-sharp teeth, and a jaw-bite powerful enough to crush solid bone, this deadly dasyurid is not one to dice with! Quortney can best be described as fierce and fiery, with stocky little feet and a thick, solid tail which gives her superior balance and all the dexterity needed for getting into fights. She's also a proud, stubborn little thing, LOVES to argue, and goes all-in, even when she knows she's wrong. In spite of her impulsive ferocity, there is no better friend to have on one's side when words won't work any more.
