Panels descriptions

• Advanced Animatronics : Jaws

This accessible panel delves deep into the science for what it takes to make a fursuit jaw that actually works right. If you are interested in making your own moveable jaw, this is your place to be. Floere will present some of his original research and also demonstrate functional prototypes. As this panel involves the words “Floere” and “prototypes” in the same sentence, only the bravest should dare to sit in the first row(s) (room? building? continent?).

Hosted by Floere

• Basic Fursuit Electronics : Motors, moveables and more

Want to change your expression at the touch of a button? Want to wag your tail, twitch your ears, and unfold your wings? Adding a few motors to your costume can produce great effects! While the mechanisms are the subject of many good online tutorials, the reliability and electrical sides are often handled frighteningly optimistic. That's where this panel comes in: how to drive the motors reliably, without setting yourself on fire.

Hosted by Floere

• Brew It Yourself

Back at it for its third year, the panel where we brew and taste Flүүff's very own craft beer with you! We try at least one new recipe each year and this time it's a barrel aged Flemish Red Ale. You're welcome to come and go if the duration of the panel intimidates you but don't worry, the tastings and hands on parts will keep it fun and interactive!

• Auction

Art pieces from the Art Show and some collectibles from previous editions of Flүүff will be auctioned off! More info in the Dealers Den.

• Closing Ceremony

End of the convention? SIKE! There is more fun to be had but now is a good time to thank our amazing team and give you a little teaser of next year...

• CupHead Games (the)

The cuphead games is a co-op speedrun of the game cuphead, choose your difficulty, defeat every boss on your way and defeat the Devil himself.

Hosted by Loginner

• Dance

Party hard at the dance where the DJ's will be playing a nice selection of music. Whether you like House, Hardcore, Drum and bass, Dubstep, Techno or something else, our DJ's have a beat to everybodies liking!

- Dead Dog Party

Well sadly the con is almost over... You feel tired and are ready to go home... Nah, there is one more dance going on to give your last energy on the dancefloor with a wild variety of music, so come on down and at the end of this dance you'll really be a dead dog!

- Feedback Panel

A panel where you help us improve Flüüff and get to meet some of its key members. A feedback form is also available in the lounge area.

- Furgiants Rampage

Furries destroy everything! Especially when they're giant and they enter a tiny (cardboard) city.

- Fursuit Charades

The classic game where the public has to guess which word is being acted. But with a twist: the actors must wear a fursuit, which makes it more fun and difficult.

Hosted by Furexa

- Fursuit Games

A popular and beloved part of any convention among suiters and audience. Suiters will engage in a friendly competition among various games that test their wits, skills and agility. Make sure to join if you want to partake in some fun fursuit friendly games!

- Fursuit Acting 2.1

How can improve our fursuit acting? How to make our characters live through our gestures and motions? Let's brainstorm together after a little presentation of some examples from well-known fursuiters.

Hosted by Tach

- Fursuit Walk

Right after the group picture, we invite you for a relaxing walk through the little path lost in the dunes. Amazing view on the pier and the sea and a good opportunity to take pictures! Check the communication channels in case the weather doesn't agree with us to see if we can continue the walk. We all gather at the Mainstage and start from there!

• Game Night and Fright 1 and 2

Come hang out as we play the famous hidden identity party game of villagers and those who hunt them. Try to deduce who is terrorising the town before it is too late!

Hosted by Kano

• Group Picture

It is a great furry convention tradition!

The group picture will be taken inside this year, at the Mainstage. The picture will be taken at the announced time so we ask you all to already gather there at least 15min before if you want to be on it :)

• Homebrew Wine Tasting

Do you make your own homebrew? Would you like to let others have a taste or are you interested in tasting people's creations? Then this panel is for you!

Hosted by Kauri

• How it's Made? : Fursuit Fabric

How it's made?" Fur fabrics. This panel is all about the production of fur fabric. Ever wondered how they make all those funky colors or how they produce such fluffy and soft fabric? This panel features a small workshop and brief explanation about the production of fur fabric!

Hosted by Fumps

• How to Fox

DiscoFox is not a furriname out of the 80's, but a dance from Germany. It's like ballroom dancing, but less strict, easier to learn and full of potential for your own creativity, after you mastered the basics.

This panel is suitable for everyone, no dance experience needed!

Feel free to come alone, with your partner, your best furry friend, your mother or even your whole squad, we will make sure to match you with a dancing partner. Can't wait to see you!

• Know your Lemur

This panel will be a presentation of this unique group of primates living in Madagascar! You will learn a lot of facts about lemurs, how they live, and how they are facing extinction!

Lemurs are in great danger! And we want to help them...

Hosted by the Lemur Warriors

- Mad Science Escape

"You are formally invited by the famous neurologist Mozgumer Koshka to the highly exclusive reveal of his latest prototype Home Defender™ feline companions. Do not be alarmed, nothing could possibly go wrong; the title of this event is misinformed, surely."

By coming to this panel, you agree to the terms and conditions and accept that Dr. Koshka cannot be held responsible for loss of life, limb and/or sanity. An insurance to cover this is obligatory and available at the entrance.

- MotorFurs Meet

Whether it's an old rusty classic or a shiny new sports car, come and show it off at Flüüfff's very own motorfurs meet! Whether you're a fan of cars, motor bikes or a home made vehicle, come and turbocharge your Flüüfff experience at this high-octane meet up!

Hosted by Damien Leblanc

- "My First Furcon"

Furcons are incredibly fun, but sometimes also incredibly daunting. If you've never been to one before, it can cause a lot of anxiety. What can I expect? What will the people be like? What's the venue like? What should I pay attention to? How do I hug a fursuiter? No two furcons are the same, but they all have a few basic things in common. This panel is meant to help first-time con visitors (or veterans who want to check up on their basics) get through the week with as little obstacles and as many happy fluffy memories as possible.

Hosted by Guynio

- Opening Ceremony

"10.. 9.. 8.. 7.. 6.. 5.. wait wait wait! Is this thing on? Flüüfff 3 is about to start but we might have an itty bitty last minute details to sort out. Not much, I swear. Bear with us, we're ALMOST ready!"

- Qualitea time

Tea is not just 'flavoured water', it's a culture. Although we drink tea in British fashion, people from across the world have been drinking it for aeons (contrary to coffee). A (brief) history of the British tea culture will precede the tea tasting where you can expect an explanation on the pastries that are enjoyed with the tea and what a High Tea is. This is the first part of the panel which is meant for the people who are interested in the background of tea. Do you think this panel is your cup of tea? Feel free to join! During the second part of the panel the lower class is welcome for a cup of tea as well!

- Secret Art of Bean Juice (coffee)

From Benevolent bean to Bean juice, Laddian will be presenting a roasting and grinding process for coffee beans, with some tasting of generally available and custom roasted beans, showing a process for how it's done bean roasting (with some fancy data monitoring and historization)!

Rhoasted by Laddian

- Snack Exchange

Bring in your snacks and drinks and lets share some specialities of our home countries in this convivial and tasty event!

- Special Beers Meet n Greet

Casual meet for special beer lovers and Untappd users. Bring some original and/or strange beers (craft or commercial) and let's share them! Glasses will be provided.

Hosted by Stan

- Talents Show

Do you have a (special) talent that very few know of? Please don't keep it to yourself and share it with us at the Talent show!

Whether it's singing, dancing, playing an instrument, telling jokes or any other talent, join the Talent Show and amaze the audience, the stage is yours! (This event requires you to register so we know what acts there are and what materials you need to perform).

AfterDark Panels:

- Meet the Puppies

SFW Puppyplay Panel for everyone interested in puppy-/pet-play or curious about it. Feel free to dress in gear and play, or to come by and pet some good boys - all we ask is that there's no exposed naughty bits and things don't get too frisky.

Hosted by Kauri

An info-taining panel about the in's and out's of drawing adult furry art.

Hosted by Zepto

- Vore Meet n Eat
