Word from the chair

Sand, shells and palm trees...

After one heck of a trip on our luxurious "Grand Casino" cruise, gambling, partying, drinking, the wake-up call is rather harsh.

Stranded, lost, shuddering and afraid.

But it will take more to bring the Flüffff Team down!

So we gather up all the supplies we can find; bottles, fans, games, crates of decorations, light and sound equipment (the rodents among us will be running the wheel to provide electricity) as well as an absurd amount of carpet. We set up camp and make the most of our forced vacation while waiting to be rescued.

It feels almost like we're back to our humble beginnings, partying by the seaside. Well, not quite...

We can sometimes hear whispers at night, see patches of vegetation trembling in the corner of our eyes and find strange and ancient artifacts scattered around the thick forest. There is definitely a bit of tropical tension around here!

It is good to have you with us to share another Flüffff adventure,

We welcome you to
"Tropical Trouble"!

Basic rules

Being stranded does not mean we have to ditch basic rules regarding politeness and good behavior. Note that, while our stewards are here to ensure that you are having a good time:

- Wear your badge at all times in the convention area,
- Do not consume food or drinks (with the exception of water) in the convention or public hotel area (this includes the 'Dealers' Den' and other event rooms),
- Being intoxicated is not tolerated in the convention area,
- Be mindful of the fursuiters: give fursuiters priority for the lifts and do not block access,
- Respect people's personal space: ask before a hug and do not 'bearhug' unless given without prior consent,
- Smoking or vaping is only allowed in the 'Smoking Room',
- Follow the dress code: keep in mind that you are walking in publicly accessed areas.

There are of course exceptions, they will be clearly communicated where applicable..

- Do not forget to recharge your own (solar cell) batteries,
- Take downtime: rest enough, take power naps, walk in the city, etc,
- Look after your personal hygiene: shower as required - at least once a day,
- Remember to eat and drink: hydrate yourself regularly with non-alcoholic beverages, eat at least two substantial meals a day.

You have questions?
A problem with an attendee or a staff member?

Ask for a steward: we are trained to deal with this type of situation and we are at your service.

You can reach us in many ways:

- Through the call button,
- Ask for us at the bar,
- Directly ask someone with a pink vest and steward badge.

For a more detailed list of all the convention rules and guidelines, visit our website at

Fursuit affairs

Fursuit Interaction

- Please be careful when interacting with fursuiters, always ask for consent before physically interacting with a suiter so you do not accidentally damage the suit or hurt the person inside of it.
- Want to take a picture of a suiter? Ask them for permission. Most will gladly take on a nice pose for you.
- Be mindful of the limited vision, hearing and strain fursuiters face while in suit. When possible give them priority for the elevators or offer them a hand for the stairs.
- Notice a fursuiter that looks unwell? Offer to help them back to their room or the fursuit lounge and notify the staff so we can get a medic to come help.

Fursuit Lounge Rules

- Access to the fursuit lounge is limited to: con staff, fursuiters and 1 handler per suiter.
- Please do not use the fursuit lounge as a hangout spot, this is an area for our suiters to comfortably change and catch their breath.
- It is not allowed to take pictures or film in the fursuit lounge. Please move outside of the lounge if you want to take a picture with your fursuiting friends.
- Reserving fursuit space with towels/tape/items is not allowed.
- We do not allow footpaws on any of the dryers for hygiene reasons.
- When your fursuit is dry please remove it from the dryers and put it on a rack / table so others can use the dryers as well.
- Do not handle a suit that doesn't belong to you. Is there a suit in the way? Please contact a staff member to handle it for you.
- Fursuit lounge staff has the right to move dry suits and / or other items.
- Free snacks and drinks are available for suiters while using the fursuit lounge.
- Bringing in drinks / food from outside of the lounge is not permitted (only exception = bottled water)
- Please keep the fursuit lounge clean: no stray straws, half empty cups or trash. Plenty of trash cans are available.
- The fursuit repair station is free to use as you please. Please unplug the glue gun after use and put items back where you got them so others can also start with an organized repair kit.

Our Charity

natagora

We are excited to announce our 2nd year of partnership with NATAGORA.

Natagora is active across the whole of Wallonia and Brussels. The main objective of the association is to halt the loss of biodiversity and to help restore a better balance between nature and humankind. For this, the Association has taken on a number of missions.

- PROTECT : Natagora has more than 200 nature reserves, managed by many volunteers. The reserves cover a multitude of different types of habitat, many of which are under threat, and they are home to many rare species.

- STUDY : One of the major activities of the Association is the identification of threats, the provision of support to those species that are the most endangered, together with the coordination of many monitoring programs.

- INVOLVEMENT : On a daily basis the many Association volunteers help to influence political decisions, to promote biodiversity, to foresee impending damage, and to react as necessary.

- EDUCATION : Natagora is heavily involved in all aspects of environmental education. It runs training events, it supports Regional Centers of Introduction to the Environment, it has outreach events, and it helps the networking of individuals.

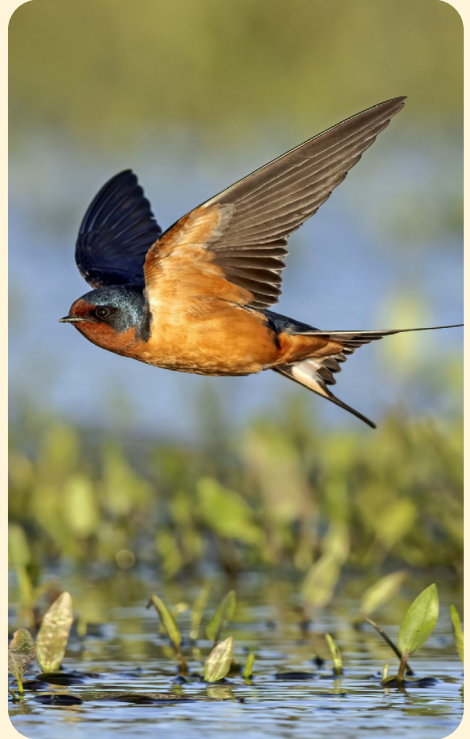

www.natagora.be

This year Natagora takes action to relocate over 5000 swallows! Due to the constant disappearance of nesting sites, Natagora finances and helps with the installation of artificial nests in towns, schools and private homes.

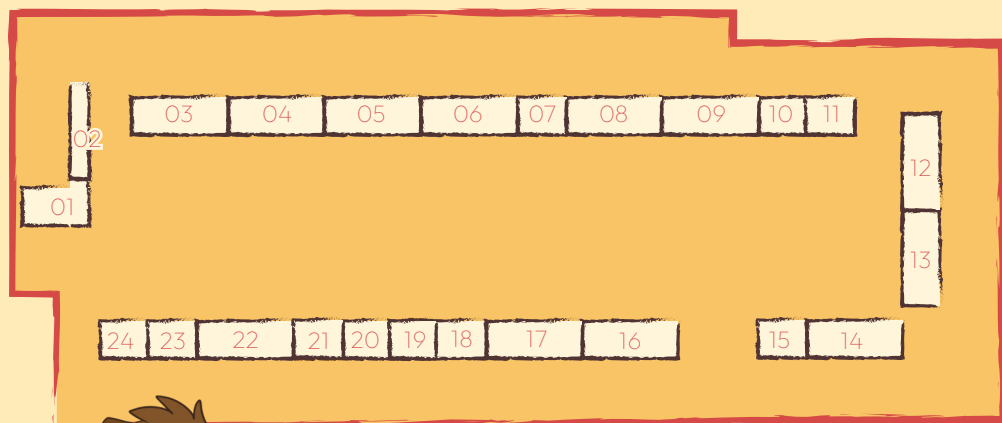

Sir-Floats-A-Lot already rented out his place!

Thanks to our donations, we'll be contributing to the goal of installing over 2,500 new nests and relocating over 5,000 swallows. Let's welcome the swallows into our environment!

More information will be given during the Q&A and Charity Event hosted on the Mainstage.

Wednesday

Haunted escape · Hosted by Kanosint

Join Dr. Nigel Cornobble for a new, fantastical adventure to the tropical island of Imboca!

The indiginous creatures have hidden away the majestic Emerald Dodecahedron – a glorious addition to the British Museum's collection!

Thus, it is your job to enter the Aquifer of Certain Doom and steal the artifact from right under their noses.

Don't worry about the rumours. Simple tall tales and superstition, surely!

My First Furcon · Hosted by Guynio Groot

First time visiting a furcon, or rusty after the forced corona break? Yacóron, experienced con-goer and con chairman helps you on your way with some pro tips to make the most of your event, including (but not limited to) Flüüffff!

Opening Ceremony

The Grand Casino has stranded and now we're stuck on this tropical beach... But that won't stop us from throwing a party! There's enough supplies to turn this into something great! Learn more about the con, the charity, and why we ended-up in this Tropical Trouble in the first place :o

Tropical Initiation Dance

"A dance on the first evening? But I barely know anyone!" Well, now you still have the energy, and probably have just met new people during the My First Furcon panel, why not set that energy free and show your true colours? Dance to your heart's desire on Mayk and DJ Code-Y!

Thursday

A Fluffy Jam · Hosted by Pete (Phin)

Do you like live music? Come join us for a jam! Whether you're a musician, dancer, or just would like to watch, join us as we have an unplanned, no rehearsals, no expectations jam session!

Defence and Deterrence (sexual abuse and harrasment)

If everything was as rosy as we'd like it to be, we wouldn't have to talk about harassment and abuse. In this panel, an external expert will explain what harassment and abuse entail. After that, some of our con-goers will share their own stories around experiencing, coping with, and preventing non-consensual contact. If you want to learn how to help victims, make sure to join this panel.

Fitness for Fluffies • Hosted by Rabbit King

Are you looking to become more active? Do you seek to improve your quality of life, or even your performance for physical activity? Or do you just want to be able to squat down to pick up an object without crying? Do you want to feel 20 when you're in your 40s!? ...no guarantees on that last one, but join Rabbit, a certified personal trainer, as they go over just what exactly fitness is in an attempt to make it more approachable to a wider audience! Improving your quality of life starts with simple movements (and don't forget to bring your towel)!

Fursuit Repair Basics • Hosted by Hell Charm

Learn how to perform basic repairs on fursuits, so you can fix small wear and tear without stress or breaking a sweat!

Haunted Escape 2 • Hosted by Kanosint

Join Dr. Nigel Cornobble for a new, fantastical adventure to the tropical island of Imboca!

The indiginous creatures have hidden away the majestic Emerald Dodecahedron - a glorious addition to the British Museum's collection!

Thus, it is your job to enter the Aquifer of Certain Doom and steal the artifact from right under their noses.

Don't worry about the rumours. Simple tall tales and superstition, surely!

How to Master the (Sound)Waves • Hosted by Choob

Cowabunga, my dudes!

The waves on these tropical jams sound gnarly today. But... Have you ever wondered how they get made? Come and join us if you want to delve deeper into the wonderful depths of sound design. And learn how to turn your tiny soundwaves into massive auditory tsunamis.

(No prior music experience needed.)

How to Panel • Hosted by Floere T. Pillowcase

So you want to host your very own panel at Flüffff but aren't quite sure how to go about it? Or you want to bounce a few ideas around for a future panel? Why sure! Come on over, take a seat, and we'll have a chat. We'll first present some techniques and tricks. After that, the floor is yours! (Literally. Go on, take it as a souvenir. Bring a crow bar.)

Karaoke • Hosted by Birdy

It's Fur-e-oke time! That's Karaoke for Furries! We have all the songs. Join our panel, pick a song, wait for your turn and sing with us. Fursuiters are welcome!

Puppy Panel • Hosted by Jules the Stoat

Legend tell of a canine tribe that roams these lands after dark, the moon light glistening on their sleek hides.

Mystery surrounds them: who are they, whence did they come from? Which are their secret rituals and what masters do they kneel to? And why are they obsessed with squeaky toys? Much will be told in this panel. Join us to learn about pup play and enjoy some squeaky time if already One of the Tribe.

Strike a Pose! • Hosted by Birdy

Do you feel like an awkward potato in front of the camera? Or is the only pose you know is a T-pose? Then this panel has you covered! We'll walk you through how to pose for a fursuit photoshoot, with plenty of examples, tips and tricks. We'll show you how to bring your characters' personality to the front and make every picture come alive!

To cap it off, we'll also teach you how to edit photographs and show you the best way to upload high-quality snaps to social media platforms.

Friday

Christian Furs Meet • Hosted by Nimalen

The idea of this meet is to provide a space to talk and share experiences. The meet is aimed at people that are both a Furry and of Christian faith, but it's open to everyone who wants to respectfully join the conversation.

Coffee Break • Hosted by Laddian

Coffee coffee coffee! Nothing is like the dark gold! Whether you drink it black or clouded with milk (we won't judge too harshly) you're welcome to join the coffee tasting. Laddian will provide three types of different home-roasted tastes, explain some history, and present an additional, secret, coffee-related topic! There will be an additional speaker here too, who might it be? Mystery abounds :D

Fursuit Games • Hosted by Thinder

Playful paws, huge heads, and massive movements... How can this ever go well with a series of tropical games? Enjoy watching your favourite suiters play games such as: Twister and Kiss the Coconut. Make sure to stay afterwards to give it all a go yourself!

Fursuit Making: Show and Tell • Hosted by Sibbs

Do you have a fursuit feature or technique (or an adjacent project) that you are proud of? Swing by here, show it off, and learn from other makers both new and seasoned! Bring your fursuit (part), or project, and get your time in the spotlight to show-off what you're proud off, then mingle and chat with other makers to learn from each other.

Bringing your own gear is encouraged, but there will be some boards and protective gear provided.

Snack Exchange · Hosted by ??????

What would an international con be without its very own snack exchange? Fluffies from all over the world bring their local delicacies for you to taste! Make sure to have a chat with the people bringing snacks and learn about the origins of these delights.

Tropical Dance

Hope you're warmed up after all the events because we have a second dance lined up for you! This time, DJ Afwasbaq, DJ Code-Y and the Green Bro's will provide you with the most tropical beats you'll hear anywhere this side of awesome!

Vore Meat 'n Eat · Hosted by Kanosint

Just a nice, annual get-together with the folks who like to eat or be eaten. Grab a seat, have a chat, get devoured by a hungry passerby...

Saturday

Advanced Animatronics Adventures · Hosted by Floere T. Pillowcase

You descend into the ancient lava tunnels, your mission clear: to sing the Song of Awoo to the Elder Dogs. Arrived at the inner sanctum, before the altar, you take a deep breath and... Oh no! It sounds like you swallowed a pillow. Worse, the Elder Dogs are displeased and render their verdict: "muble fumble Shiba rumble Floof" Or that's what it sounds like to you. What to do now? If only there was a way to sing and hear clearly while in suit! If only there was some idiot doing research in that sort of thing!

Blood on the Clocktower · Hosted by Kanosint

During a hellish thunderstorm, on the stroke of midnight, there echoes a bone-chilling scream.

The townsfolk rush to investigate and find their storyteller murdered, the body impaled on the hands of the clocktower, blood dripping onto the cobblestones below.

A Demon must be on the loose! Murdering by night and disguised in human form by day. Some of you have scraps of information. Others have abilities that fight evil or protect the innocent. But the Demon, and its evil minions, are spreading lies to confuse and breed suspicion.

In the quiet village of Ravenswood Fluff, a demon walks among you... Will the good townsfolk put the puzzle together in time to execute the demon and save themselves? Or will evil overrun this once peaceful village?

Dance Competition • Hosted by Luna

Come and see FLÜÜfff's first-ever dance competition! Fursuiters and non-suiters will groove their heart out on main stage to pumping beats. Who will be the first FLÜÜfff Dance Champion? Be there and feast your eyes on this phenomenal spectacle!

Fursuit Charades • Hosted by Thinder

Fursuiters are known not to speak. So how well do they communicate? We are going to play charades with several teams of suiters who will vie for the title of FLÜÜfff Tropical Charades Champion. Watch a hilarious game of charades, guess the words, and help us pick the final competing teams for the Show night!

Group Photo

Bring your biggest smiles and highest fives for the traditional group picture! We'll have a separate picture with only suiters, and one with all convention attendees. Make sure to be there on time so we can prepare for the best pictures we can shoot and prevent the suiters from melting into a technicolor puddle under the hot, tropical sun!

How to Beatbox 101 • Hosted by Jawbreaker

In Jawbreaker's Jaw-breaking Beatbox panel I will teach, or improve, your skills at inhuman noise making! Whether you're a complete rookie or an experienced performer, I will help you become a better drum machine than you were ever before!

Shownight and Closing Ceremony

On the night of the Final Day of FLÜÜfff we gather to celebrate the Day of Deities! Acts of all sorts shall be performed to please Stan the Creator and their Pantheon of Miscellaneous Deities. What fate shall await us? Join this night of magic and make sure to witness the conclusion to this Tropical Trouble!

Tropical Cultures • Hosted by Nimalen

Not all inhabited island are tropical, nor are all island cultures Polynesian. In this panel, we'll take a closer look at other cultures that blossom under a tropical sun, surrounded by the ocean.

We will make sure to give both, inside and outside views to present a complete picture.

Tropical (N)Ice Tea · Hosted by Lezari

Although you can('t) spell Tropical without tea, it's way too hot to serve it directly! It would be more soothing to have an iced cup of tea, no? Enjoy the selection we made for you as you listen to the history of ice tea. Because, honestly, who would think of turning a hot beverage into something this cool?

Sunday

Blood on the Clocktower · Hosted by Kanosint

If you have played Blood on the Clocktower a few times before and you seek a greater challenge: this is your ticket. Rather than Trouble Brewing, one of the mechanically more challenging editions will be pulled out.

Go Mad, get resurrected, switch roles during the game, and get caught-up in a maelstrom of misinformation!

And try to find and execute the Demon while you're at it.

Charity Auction · Hosted by Fumps/Charity Dept.

You never know what you'll find on a tropical beach. It might even be something of value... We'll auction-off the most iconic items of Flüüfff Tropical Trouble for our charity: Natagora. If you are a fervent collector, or want to support our charity, make sure to snag-up some of our monumental items!

Feedback Panel · Hosted by Choob

Want to help us improve Flüüfff for next edition? Here's your chance! Get together with the Feedback department and tell them about your experience: what would you love to keep and what can we improve?

Flüüfff Staff Recruitment Panel · Hosted by Stan Luckbun

Do you like Flüüfff? Do you want it to thrive and improve? You should consider joining our Team! In this panel you will learn how the organization works, and how you can help us achieve even better results. The list of currently available positions will also be shared.

Wild Sea and RPG's · Hosted by Kanosint

Once again, this edition of flüüfff wouldn't be possible without all of our wonderful staff members and volunteers that work all convention long to make sure that our attendees have the best experience possible. THANK YOU to all our volunteers for your wonderful work, positive energy and for continuing to make a difference together.

I hope we can work together again very soon to make each other and the convention even better, and that we will have a lot of fun while doing it!

With kind regards,
Larsje on behalf of Flüüfff HR

Would you like to help make Flüüfff even better? We're always looking for new volunteers!

A word of appreciation from the Registration Team:

It may sound cliché, but an event can only be as amazing as its attendees. And what amazing attendees we have! Out of all of you that decided to attend this year's edition, over 30% decided to sponsor on top of it, which is a huge deal. Your sponsorships help us in ways you cannot imagine. Not only does it show our wonderful staff you appreciate the work they do, but it also allows us to invest in new equipment and services to ensure your con experience is as smooth as possible. This can range from renting better servers for our website, to better PCs at Registration or better fans at the fursuit lounge,... You name it, and you are also to thank for that!

Your support means the world to us. Thank you!
