The Fur-Eh! Organizing Committee would like to give special thanks to the following individuals & organizations:

The staff & management, of the
EDMONTON INN & CONFERENCE CENTRE
Thank you also to those who generously donated artwork for this publication.

A tremendous note of appreciation to our Volunteer Staff and to our General Volunteers.
Your tireless efforts make Fur-Eh! possible.

Finally, thank you to all our attendees!
You are the reason we put on this event every year and we hope that you will be back again!

Mardi Paws Party Master

Welcome to Fur-Eh! 2020~ 2021~ 2022!

The past three years have certainly been a tumultuous time that none of us would have expected in our wildest dreams. We left Fur-Eh! 2019 with grand visions and high hopes for the future and could never have expected the roller coaster ride that the pandemic has been these past three years.

We've learned to adapt, to improvise, and to make do with what we have. Yet no matter how difficult things became, we remained focused on delivering the best event for our guests, whether it be our virtual events or last year's Christmas extravaganza.

We originally decided on Mardi Gras due to its rich history and vibrant pageantry and symbology that we felt was a perfect fit for Fur-Eh!. But as we continued to work on Fur-Eh! and as pandemic turned months into years, I was given time to reflect on what Fur-Eh! has become and that is where Mardi Gras has become more than just a theme, but an inspiration. It is that focus on guests, that focus on putting on an incredible event, and what such amazing guests contribute to it that is reflected in everything we strive to do with Fur-Eh!. You can be proud that everything that you see here and everything that you experience here is because of the feedback, suggestions, and interactions from guests just like you. You are what inspire us to raise the bar, then ask us how we can do even better next year.

When I founded Fur-Eh! ten years ago, I was in way over my head. It is a labour of love created by someone with too little knowledge about how to make an event work and too stubborn to ask others for help. But much like Fur-Eh! 2013's theme, The Great Canadian Road Trip, Fur-Eh! itself has been a journey that has changed direction many times and encountered more than its share of breakdowns and detours. We have met many thousands of incredible guests over these ten years and have been blessed to have some of the smartest and hardest working staff and volunteers that I have worked with at any event. It is that dynamic mix that has allowed Fur-Eh! to not only adapt and survive, but to thrive.

This road trip is just getting started.
Welcome to Fur-Eh! 2022.

This includes those who may be wearing a fursuit head; if you are in the Marketplace, you are required to wear a mask, fursuit head or not.

In all other areas of the hotel, masks are NOT required, but strongly recommended. Some panel rooms may require masks at the request of the panel host or organizer. Please respect their wishes and ensure you wear a mask if you plan to attend. Please be respectful of everyone regardless of their choice to wear a mask or not in areas where a mask is not required. Everyone's circumstances are different, and we will not tolerate harassment towards any of our Guests, Fur-Eh! Staff & Volunteers, Vendors or Hotel Staff.

There are also other ways to help prevent the transmission of Covid-19. Physical distancing where possible, washing hands frequently, and covering your cough or sneeze are among those ways. However, the most important way is to STAY HOME IF YOU ARE FEELING ILL just before Fur-Eh! And, if you feel you may be coming down with something during Mardi Paws, we urge you to self-isolate and notify Fur-Eh! Staff as soon as possible so that we can find ways to assist you.

Ultimately, everyone must gauge their own comfort level when it comes to attending this or any other event. We ask all our Guests to consider their risk factors or the risk factors of others they may be in close contact with after the convention.

We know that if we all work together, we can all still have a wonderful time at Mardi Paws!

THE ART OF NICNAK

🐾 nicnak044 📷 the_art_of_nicole 🌐 theartofnicole.com

The Artist

Nicole, more well known to others in the fandom as 'N', is a character designer specializing in character and prop design. She has experience working in the TV animation industry, including Disney Channel, Discovery Kids, Teletoon, Treehouse, and more. She currently dedicates herself to freelance work (we call it 'Boss' and always taking on commissioned work with illustrations on social media sites, and running a small kind of merchandise for sale on-line and at conventions. She travels across Canada and abroad in hopes of attending and exploring and sharing her work with others.

The Art

Nicole began creating at a very young age, having been inspired by anthropomorphic characters especially in Disney films. She knew someone made those films, but it wasn't until it was a career until high school. Once it was time to attend, it was then Nicole decided she would make her work to a professional level and began studying art and learning the skills involved, Nicole graduated in April 2016 with a BA.

The Fandom

Nicole has been a part of the fandom for a long time, joining the date when she made the move over to DeviantART talking about the idea a community revolved around anthropomorphic animals, she absolutely loved (thanks to Disney films 'Looney Toons') Nicole's favourite animal would be a better choice than a Canadian lynx, but their physical attributes fit perfectly with Nicole.

She's always been interested in the illustrative side of the fandom, contributing her work and admiring others works, but it wasn't until 2015 when she took an interest and dove into the pursuing and performance aspect of the fandom. She currently owns two suits (her lynx, Nicole and her opossum, Opal) but she hopes to add her coyote, Sahara, into the mix as well!

Some fun facts about Nicole:

- She loves pickles and pickle-flavoured things
- Has two black cats (Finn and Patrick) that are rescues
- Her partner, Foxjump, is also a furry and whom she plans to marry in October 2022
- She rides a motorcycle
- Her current drink of choice is a gin cocktail
- If she didn't choose a lynx as a fursona, she'd have a coyote!

Beyond The Beads. The story of your Krewe

RAINBOW IRIS KREWE

The Rainbow Iris Krewe has been an integral part of Mardi Paws Celebrations since its inception. Heavily Inspired by the messenger Goddess Iris, their founding members wished to bring the message of welcome to all attendees, regardless of age or identity. Their wholesome fun has attracted many throughout the ages, creating a safe place within the Mardi Paws Celebration as a whole. This, coupled with their belief that one can forever be young at heart creates a place where the word 'play' is not something you give up when you become older.

Each year, they crown the Rainbow Court Monarchs, who are those who are the inspiration of the Rainbow Iris Krewe's ideals and mission. Come find their events to make your own sunglass masquerade mask, or get your face painted, or just enjoy the simple pleasure of their ball pit.

Whatever troubles have plagued you over the last couple years, come find the simple joys in life and be a kid again!

SCLERAT ROUGE KREWE

The Scelerat Rouge Krewe came to Mardi Paws on a fleet of pirate ships, lead by the dread Lady Icepaw, scoundrel queen of the north.

These insatiable pirates swiftly took over the port while the guards were at Mardi Paws and swept into town. But, something unusual happened. Lady Icepaw halted her crew when she saw the brightly coloured city heard the laughter of adults and children alike. Something had been missing in her life, and Mardi Paws settled into it like a piece of a puzzle. The Scelerat Rouge Krewe was formed, and while not having the quick tongues of the Pawmical Fools, and being a bit too dark for the average club, they found a home in the celebration by helping furry animals find their forever home.

Now, instead of raiding and pillaging, they offer prizes for those who are the most active and generous in raising money for this end. But be warned, they say the ghost of dead Lady Icepaw still walks the streets of the celebration, her cutlass out to 'gently prod' those not quick enough in their generosity...

PAWMICAL FOOLS KREWE

The Pawmical Fools go back to the time of royalty, the jesters of the kings and queens of the court. They were created to bring fun and laughter to the castles and to help relieve the tension of the day by bringing joy and cheer in the evenings. Nothing was to be wrong when the Pawmical Fools were around, always with their quick puns and readied jokes. They were the clowns of court and they were the best clowns around!

When you encounter one of their Krewe, be ready for some laughter because the Pawmical Fools are here to make your day! They will amaze you with their kazoo skills, and their stand up or random jokes can lighten any room's mood. They will cease all arguments and will lighten the heaviest of heart. They are the jesters of Mardi Paws and are ready to make your acquaintance and hope you enjoy your stay!

New Orleans Inspired Cuisine

No Mardi Gras Paws celebration is complete without the traditional king cake, also known as a twelfth night cake. The cake is frosted with gold, green, and purple icing representing power, faith, and justice respectively. These traditional colors date back to 1872 and were taken from a prominent parade group, called a krewe. Although the cake is colorful and tasty, the real fun is found inside.

The maker hides a token in the king cake. The tokens may be a dried red bean or a baby figurine, representing the Christ child. When the cake is cut and shared, the person who finds the hidden treasure is said to enjoy good luck for the coming year. The lucky recipient may also be expected to bake the king cake or throw the Mardi Gras Paws party the following year.
