LETTER FROM THE CHAIR

Happy Anniversary Furlandia!

It seems like just yesterday that a group of college-aged friends naïvely got together to plan Portland's first furry convention. We held planning meetings at the PSU library, the Denny's at Lloyd district (my car got towed, true story!) and even McMenamins once or twice. We couldn't have imagined that a decade later we'd still be here, doing this, or how far Furlandia has come.

It's no secret that the pandemic has wrought havoc on the convention scene. Furlandia is no exception, and in many ways trying to rebuild is harder than creating it the first time; in the beginning no one knows what's going to happen, but after ten years people have expectations.

If 2022 was about proving we still had it in us, 2023 has been about laying the groundwork to carry Furlandia far into the future. It has been my honor, as one of the founding staff members, to serve as chair*mane* for Furlandia's tenth anniversary. Our dedicated volunteers, be they old hands or up-and-comers, have been carrying the torch to keep the Furlandia dream alive through the last several years.

Which is why I'm pleased to announce that YOU are the Guest of Honor for Furlandia 2023!

Our members are what makes Furlandia possible, and in recognition every attendee of will be receiving a Guest of Honor ribbon; wear it with pride. This year's theme is "Your Character Here," and whether you're attending for the first time or you've been with us from the start, I'm pleased to see your character here at Furlandia 2023!

-Rhys Redmane

Founded by Atso, Furlandia's first year was held at the University Place hotel downtown. Planned in mere months, staff owe special thanks to Stephen Couchman for lending us his expertise.

Our first year had a hipster theme, playing off of the then-new TV show "Portlandia," which was also inspiration for the convention's name Furlandia's second year saw a change in venue to the Sheraton Portland Airport.

Ownership of the event also changed, with Furlandia coming under the umbrella of non-profit organization Rainfurrest Anthropomorphics International.

This is also the year our furry history meta theme was introduced, beginning in the Iron Age...

The 2014 t-shirts featured Athena.

In 2015 Furlandia's historical meta theme jumps nearly 2,000 years.

Why such a big jump? Why skip the dark ages, the medieval period, or the renaissance? One word.

Furry pirates.

I guess that's two words. I'll need to fix that before this goes to print.

HISTORY – 2017

REMEMBERING 10 YEARS OF FURLANDIA

The "Roaring Twenties" was Furlandia at it's peak.

We had more guests of honor than ever before,
and more staff to help create all the fun

At the speakeasy 'Furlandia'
it seemed the good times would never end!

Those happy days are here again...

The 1950's had cars with fins, drive-in theaters, and sock hops, and we all know furries love a good sock hop.

Perhaps that explains why 2018 saw Furlandia exceed 1,000 attendees for the first time!

Make love, not war!
The Summer of Fluff
is furry hippies, ya dig?

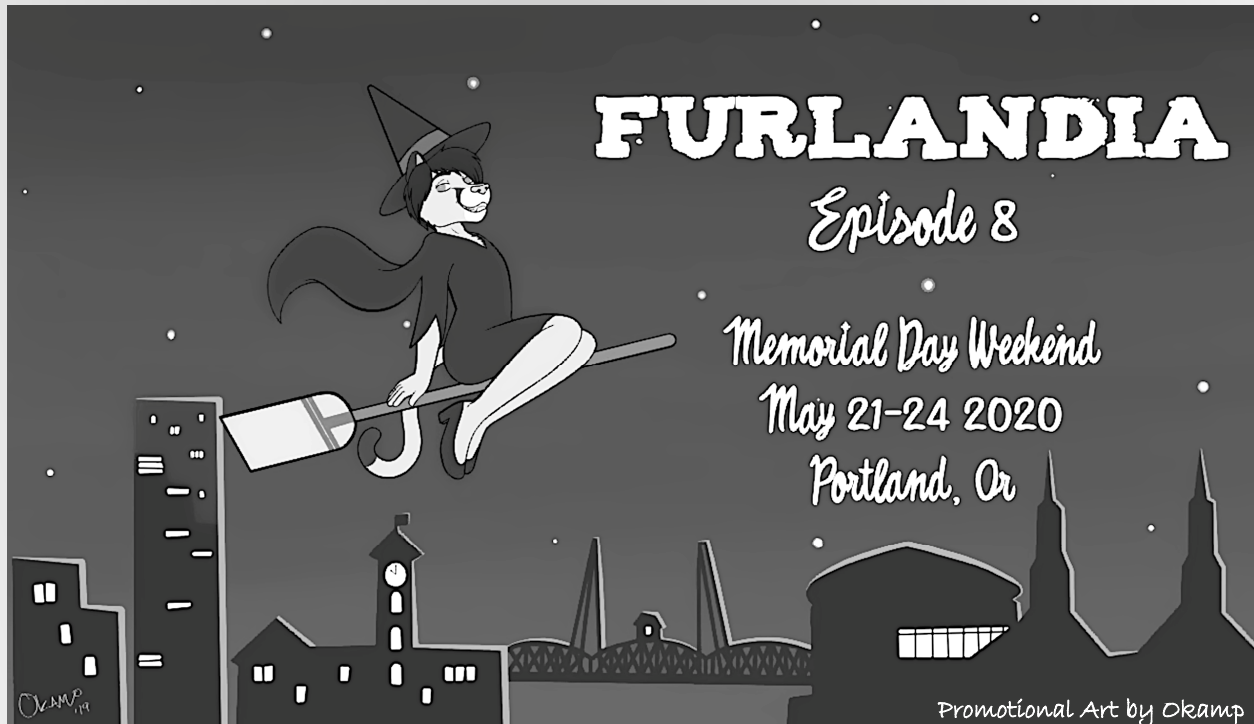

Furlandia was the hip, happening
place where a groovy
flower child could mellow
and hang loose in the scene.

We had our all-time highest attendance! This gig was so packed it was outta' sight.

The whole thing was a gas, but if you can remember it, you weren't really there.

HISTORY – 2022

Not gonna lie, 2020 / 2021 didn't quite go the way we planned. Something about a global pandemic? Social distancing?

You'd think socially awkward furies would be good at social distancing, and that fursuit heads would make great masks, but IDK.

But that just made it all the sweeter when we were finally able to get together again in 2022.

There wasn't a conbook in 2022, so I couldn't put the cover here. So instead enjoy this advertisement with Saphy in a dress.
