Code of Conduct

This Code of Conduct is a short version for reference only. The full version is posted on our website. We want ALL of our attendees to have fun at Furnal Equinox! To help accomplish this, we've developed this Code of Conduct to ensure that everybody can have fun, and that the con can continue for years to come.

1. Rule Number One

Anything that damages, interferes with and/or causes serious harm to our event's operations or reputation is not permitted.

2. Con Badges & Admission

In order to complete registration and receive your con badge, you must present valid photo identification that proves your identity and age. All attendees must wear their con badge where it is visible to enter and remain in con space. Minors (defined as convention attendees under the age of 18 by the convention start date) must have the written consent of their parent or legal guardian to attend the convention. In addition, any minor under the age of 15 must be accompanied at all times by a parent, legal guardian, or authorized chaperone while in convention space.

3. Our Rating

Furnal Equinox activities and event space are rated "PG". Attendees must conduct themselves in accordance with our "PG" rating, including but especially in any area visible to non-attendees or the public. Exceptions may be made for events or areas designated by convention staff. Please refer to the Apparel Guidelines posted on our website for further clarification on apparel.

4. Racism and Bigotry Are Not Tolerated

All attendees have a right to equal treatment without discrimination due to race, ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnicity, creed, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, marital status, family status or disability. Acts of discrimination promoting hatred are not welcome at our event and are a criminal offense.

5. Alcohol & Drugs

You must be 19 years of age or older to possess or consume alcohol in Ontario. Alcohol is not served or permitted in event space. Please drink responsibly at the hotel bar or in your hotel room. Smoking or vaping is only permitted in hotel-designated areas outdoors. You cannot consume or distribute controlled substances at our event.

6. Event Space, Hotel Rooms, and Room Parties

Respect the space, those within it, and the venue management. Do not damage property, inconvenience other guests, or cause unnecessary disturbance.

7. Costume, Cosplay, and Prop Policy

Attendees must be prepared to present any prop(s) carried within event space, including those that could be mistaken for weapons, for inspection when requested. Costumes modeled after law enforcement or military are expressly forbidden within convention space.

8. Harassment

"Costume" does not equal consent and the universal rule applies: "No" means NO! Any instances of harassment should be reported to convention security immediately.

9. Vendors & Advertising / Selling Goods and Services

Advertising and sale of goods and services is permitted only by persons approved by Furnal Equinox, in designated areas.

10. Pets and Service Animals

Only service animals are allowed in convention space. Pets are not permitted in event space for safety and allergy-related reasons.

11. Photography, The Media, And You

Media (reporters, etc.) are not permitted in convention space unless authorized by Furnal Equinox. Photography is not permitted in certain areas.

12. Limitation of Liability

Furnal Equinox aims to take reasonable care to ensure the safety of its attendees. However, attendees should be aware of their well-being at all times. By registering, attendees acknowledge that certain events at the convention (fursuit events, parades, games) may present an additional risk of injury. Attendees are not permitted to sleep overnight in the hotel lobby, public washrooms, or convention space.

If you violate this code, you can expect any of the following:

- A verbal or written warning
- Removal from con space
- Cancellation of your registration without refund
- A ban from future events hosted by us
- Reporting to venue management or the police.

Please help us protect you and everyone else who is attending the convention.
Have fun this weekend – and be safe!

Reach out to our Security team at any time:

1-855-46-FURRY

(1-855-463-8779)

For the safety and protection of all attendees, we have increased support from an external private company and uniformed members of the Toronto Police Service. We understand that this may be uncomfortable, but this decision will allow us to have better, faster responses, should serious emergencies arise. Thank you for your understanding!

Apparel Guidelines

Furnal Equinox requests that attendees be discreet with their apparel (fursuits, collars, ears, harnesses, etc) outside of convention hours and in any hotel common spaces.

Attendees must maintain a minimum level of body coverage (t-shirt and shorts, or equivalent) at all times.

The apparel guidelines also apply to all 18+ spaces including the 18+ Dealers Den.

Prohibited

- ◆ Any clothing and/or accessories that overly accentuate, deliberately draw attention to or reveal genitalia;
- ◆ Any items that will unduly compromise the mobility or safety of yourself or others such as;
 - 'In use' restraints (the wearer is bound or restrained)
 - Chains (this includes Choke Chains)
 - Anything that can restrict breathing (e.g. gags)
 - Straightjackets
 - Fistmitts
 - Locks which inhibit normal movement or easy removal of items in the event of an emergency.
- ◆ Any logos, symbols, flags, or imagery of any kind that is, or appears to be, intended to provoke or spread hate;
- ◆ Any apparel that resembles or gives the appearance of military or law enforcement;
- ◆ Any culturally appropriated attire, props, fursuits or badges, including but not limited to those that depict racial stereotypes.

After Hours

From 9pm until the con space closes, guidelines relax a little to allow the following alternative apparel to be worn in convention space.

- ◆ Bodysuits (Non-fursuit such as spandex/rubber, and must be opaque)
- ◆ Harnesses

Always Permitted

The following attire is considered appropriate at all hours of the convention:

- ◆ Collars
- ◆ 'Dogsled style' harnesses
- ◆ Cuffs (cannot be used to bind a person)
- ◆ Leashes (must be unsecured or held by the wearer only; cannot be dragging on the ground)
- ◆ Costumes (e.g. Spiderman/Deadpool)
- ◆ Pup/Pony hoods

Uncertain about an attire article?

Please talk to a member of our Safety team in their East Wing office!

Zee

the Raccoon

Zee the Raccoon is a bubbly beacon of positivity—a fursuiter, cosplayer and artist!

An eternal entertainer—Zee is most well-known for creating bite-sized informational pieces on fandom culture (furry and cosplay) that are fun to watch and easy to listen to.

A Toronto based lifelong convention addict—her joy and enthusiasm for the beauty of costume and community inspire others to appreciate the art of subculture. A zinester, game-creator, painter... she's got a lot going on!! (Also, did you know Zee the Raccoon THE CHARACTER exists because of Furnal Equinox?? It's true!)

You can find Zee running around the con doing panels about art or the sillier parts of fandom!

Come to one to see her in her element!

Also: the cult of Zee the Raccoon is not a real cult.
