Dedication

Paul Bickford "Brun Bera", "Geolu"

Brun was a member of our community from its humble beginnings, attending and supporting events and conventions far and wide. His generosity knew no bounds, volunteering time, money, equipment, and aid to conventions and individuals alike. He was an integral part of FurFright's success (2003-2013), and continued his work with Furpocalypse until his passing. Our community, and countless lives, we're made better by his selflessness, compassion, friendship, skills, humor, and good nature. You are loved and missed, Brun. See you down the road.

Ed "Kohi" Demaso

Taken from us too suddenly from us this year, we remember our friend Kohi. An always shining source of friendship and true compassion for their friends we mourn the loss of you more than you would have ever known. As that smiling face would walk through the door it was like you had never left. Laughing, drinking, smiling, and exploring both in the world around you and within ourselves and each other we always found you a source of comfort. Coyotes are creatures of the night and you embodied that so well. Our lives and the little slice you occupied here in our own little part of the world will forever be changed, and we miss you dear friend. We will never forget the memories we shared together and are saddened by the fact we won't be able to make any more. But the memories we have will last a lifetime and so will the love for our you. We miss you yote, and you will be with us always and forever.

Guests of Honor

Cyamallo

Cyamallo (also known by Scotch) is a furry artist and writer that specializes in 1970s anthropomorphic horror and drawing fursonas with mouths wider than they're physically capable to achieve the LOUDEST SCREAMS! Whether they're painted or flat-colored, everything this chick touches is bound to convey some mess of emotional expression. Like your cartoon animals stretchy? toothy? Broken-boned? If you answered yes, then Cyamallo has got some technicolor creatures for YOU.

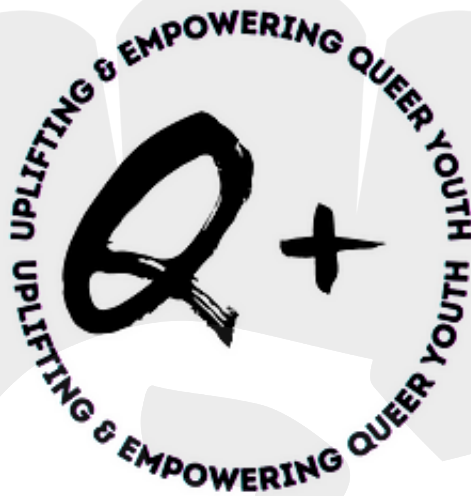

DeadlyComics

Watsup, it's that DeadlyComics guy! I make animations and put 'em online, like COOL TIMES, MOVING RIGHT ALONG?, and that one Fell in Love with a Girl animation with the dancing cat. I'm also an animator on Hazbin Hotel, Ollie & Scoops and Too Loud. Come on down and we can shoot the breeze!

Charity

Furpocalypse Proudly Supports

Q Plus is a Connecticut nonprofit dedicated to uplifting and empowering queer youth through programs like open mics, workshops, game nights, support groups, and GSA support. Youth programs are created and facilitated based on needs identified by young people, and available in online and in-person formats. Q Plus also offers workshops, trainings, consultations, and even a support group for adult supporters of queer youth. Q Plus is working to create space for queer youth to be authentically and entirely themselves; the organization will continue changing and evolving as the needs of queer youth continue to change and evolve.

Code of Conduct

The staff here at Furpocalypse would like everyone to feel at home and enjoy themselves at the convention. However we have a few rules we impart on you to help ensure a fun Furpocalypse for everyone! Any persons, who violate this Code of Conduct (hurts the cons feelings) or become a liability to the convention or its attendees, will be removed from the convention by the authorities and/or permanently banned from all future events.

If you have any information about individuals in violation of the code of conduct, or have any issues before, during, or after the con, we urge you to report to Con Ops or any con security personnel immediately. For any other concerns or issues, we can be reached via the email listed on our website or just give us a shout on twitter. Please do not bring issue or complaints to the hotel staff unless it specifically pertains to hotel issues (i.e. billing, room services, etc)

Furpocalypse staff, Security volunteers, and hotel staff are permitted to enforce this code of conduct and the hotel regulations at all times during the convention, including your stay with the hotel. Enforcement techniques include but are not limited to, asking you nicely to behave, a slap on the paw, naughty marks on your badge, revoking your badge privileges and ejecting you from the convention or hotel (Bonus Prize: Ban Hammer!!) If we deem it necessary, local law enforcement will be contacted for violations of local laws or ordinances. All attendees are asked to respect security personnel, con staff, and hotel staff at all times (fear and/or loathing optional).

Forms of Identification Needed To Register

In order to ensure a neat and orderly Furpocalypse, all attendees are required to produce one of the following forms of valid (non-expired) government or state-issued ID to complete registration.

- Passport
- Drivers License
- State-Issued Photo ID
- Military ID

All minors attending Furpocalypse will also require a notarized parental consent form. Minors under 14 may provide a birth certificate or other government issued, identifying document.

Badges and Convention Access

It's dangerous to go alone, take your badge with you at all times. Your badge will live with you, sleep with you, and maybe get into some other "stuff" with you. This will be required for access to all con spaces during the Furpocalypse. All other hotel areas are for con attendees or registered guests only. Anyone without a con badge or proof of hotel registration (i.e. room key, receipt) will not be permitted on hotel property. There are many like it but this one is yours! Anyone loaning or borrowing a badge will be shunned (for hurting the badges feelings).

Alcohol, Drugs, and Public Intoxication

During the convention, drugs and alcohol are not permitted in any con designated space. The sale or distribution of drugs (they're bad mmmkay?), distribution of alcohol, or contributing to the delinquency of minors (No giving kids beer! candy is optional) will result in immediate BANISHMENT and will be reported to the local authorities. Drinking should be limited to private rooms only, and in moderation. Public intoxication, drinking in public, or otherwise acting in an inappropriate manner will result in naughty marks on your badge, ejection from the con areas, uploading your embarrassing drunk video to youtube, or indefinite banishment.

Weapons

Weapons are not allowed on the hotel property or in any con areas at any time. Prop, toy or other types of weapons (i.e. ninja stars, swords, stabby-thingies) should be inspected by the con security officer and marked before being allowed into con areas. No Exceptions.

Public Behavior

While in any public areas or hotel/con areas (i.e. anywhere not your room) please remember you are representing Furpocalypse and the community. Please always act in a respectful and polite manner with other attendees, con staff, hotel employees, or anyone for that matter. Any displays of overt affection (We reserve the right to get the spray bottle), vulgar language, profanity, failure to use inside voices, horseplay (not limited to equine furs), unsolicited contact (paws to yourself), or stalking behavior will result in expulsion from the con space and possibly future events.

Public Displays Of Affection

Please limit all public interactions to a G rating at all times in any public areas of the con or hotel. Anything more than a hug should be limited to the privacy of your room, out of respect for all other attendees, guests and hotel staff.

Interacting With Hotel Guests and Staff

Play nice! Please be polite and respectful of others while in public areas of the hotel. Any attendees who show rude, disrespectful or offensive behavior to other guests, attendees or staff, will receive a free cone of shame and will be handled at the discretion of con staff.

Dress Code

No one wants to see you naked. If they do please refer to our Public Displays of affection section. Otherwise there will be no nudity or explicit outfits allowed in public areas of the con space or hotel. Fursuits are not permitted in the restaurant or pool areas for safety. Shoes are required in all areas of the hotel or con space.

Loitering

Please refrain from congregating in large groups in non con designated areas of the hotel, elevators, or parking lot. No fur piles outside of con space or we will get the rolled up newspaper!

Noise

Inside voices are to be used at all times. Please refrain from yelling, screaming, shouting in public areas of the con space or hotel or your room. Portable speakers or noise making objects are prohibited from hotel and con spaces. Noise curfews for rooms go into effect at 10pm for floors 4-5, and 12am for the late night room block, floors 1-2. Please respect the hotel and it's other guests by limiting your noise after these hours.

Room parties

Personal room parties are not condoned by Furpocalypse. Any room parties must adhere to hotel regulations and the Furpocalypse code of conduct. Noise or music must be contained within your room. No loitering in the hallways or overcrowding in your rooms, doors should remain closed at all times. G rated flyers advertising parties may only be posted on the con bulletin board and are limited to 18+ only. If you are hosting a party, distributing large quantities of alcohol is not permitted and you will be responsible for verifying the age of all participants.

Hotel Room Treatment/Release of Liability

No you may not party like a rockstar. Hotel rooms must be returned in the condition they were received. Any attendees who remove, damage, deface hotel property, or leave a trashed room, will be charged for damages by the hotel and banned from future events. The person registered to the individual room will be responsible for all charges, damages to the hotel.

Sleeping Room Cleanliness: Odors and Trash

If we can smell you from the hallway, we will probably want to talk. All trash and "smells" should be kept within the confines of your rooms. Please bag all large messes or odorous materials yourself, and do not leave them for hotel staff. Hotel staff or con security will intervene if these rules are not being adhered to.

Hotel Cleanliness

Please don't litter, or leave large amounts of trash in any areas of the hotel or con space. Always clean up after yourself, and properly dispose of all trash.

Smoking & Vaping

Smoking and Vaping is permitted in designated outdoor areas ONLY. Please properly dispose of all related waste

Elevator Protocol

Elevator groups are limited to six(6) individuals. Please do not disrupt the operation of the elevators. Always allow suiters, other guests and the elderly priority access to the elevators.

Signs, Flyers, and Decorations

Any signs or flyers may be displayed on the con bulletin board only or room doors on the nights of events. All postings must be rated G. Do not hang or leave flyers or signs any other spaces of the hotel. Please do not damage or deface hotel property when posting signs or flyers.

Minors and Parental Consent

Minors (anyone under the age of 18 as of the first day of the convention) attending the con without a parent or guardian are required to have a notarized copy of our Parental Consent form when they register at the convention. If the minor is accompanied at the hotel by a parent or guardian, they do not need to have the form notarized; however, the parent or guardian must accompany them at the time of registration/badge pick-up to verify identification. Persons under the age of 14 need to have a parent or guardian present in the hotel for the duration of the convention. Children 12 and under must be accompanied at all times by their parent or legal guardian. Minors in violation of this policy will be turned over to local authorities.

Lost and Found

Any items found at the convention may be turned in to Con Ops. Furpocalypse will hold any items turned in until they are claimed by their owner. If the item is not reclaimed during the convention, a notice will be posted on the Furpocalypse website (www.furpocalypse.org). Any items remaining unclaimed after a reasonable amount of time will become Furpocalypse's property.

Video/Audio, Photography, and Media Relations

Video/audio recordings of Furpocalypse are allowed for public use only. Furpocalypse, Inc. retains all rights to any audio/video recordings of con events. Do not publicly post, or distribute video/audio footage without the express written consent of Furpocalypse, Inc.

Attendees may NOT photograph or record video/audio footage of a subject without their consent.

Photographic images of the convention may only be used by their creators for personal use, or on their owners' websites, web pages, and blogs, as long as the subjects in the images have given prior consent. All attendees confer the rights to their image and voice, as taken by official Furpocalypse photographers and videographers, to be used for promotional and historical use (such as on the convention's highlights DVD) without compensation by Furpocalypse. Attendees voluntarily submitting photos and/or video/audio footage to Furpocalypse give consent to have their works used by the convention for promotional and historical use. Photos or video/audio footage of items in Furpocalypse's Charity Raffle/Auction, or any item for sale in the Dealers Room are strictly prohibited.

Members of the media may not seek out, interview, photograph, or film hotel or convention guests, attendees, or staff for publicly-available recordings or accounts without the expressed written consent of Furpocalypse, Inc. Anyone who violates these terms, or falsely claims to represent Furpocalypse, will have all video/image devices confiscated and will be escorted from the premises.

Release of Liability: Personal Belongings

Neither Furpocalypse nor the hotel shall be responsible for any items lost or damaged in the public areas of the hotel, in the hotel's parking lot, nor in any other parking area used during attendance at Furpocalypse. All attendees will take responsibility for their own possessions. If another attendee damages your possessions, it is your responsibility to seek recompense from them directly. If you are keeping valuable items (especially fursuits and computers) in your sleeping room, it is recommended that you keep your "Do Not Disturb" sign on the outside of your door at all times. Furpocalypse, likewise, shall not be held accountable for any damage or theft which occurs to fursuits or other personal possessions left in the Headless Rooms. Furpocalypse shall not be held accountable for any damages caused by attendees. If an attendee damages hotel property, they shall be held personally accountable for their actions and be responsible for repaying any debts incurred.

Release of Liability: Personal Injury

Neither Furpocalypse nor the hotel shall be responsible for any personal injury which occurs before, during, or after the convention. Despite the convention and hotel's precautions, mishaps sometimes occur. If you are injured and need medical attention, we will do what we can to help you contact medical professionals, but we cannot provide medical care for our attendees.

Release of Liability: Equipment Donation

Any items loaned to Furpocalypse for use during the convention are loaned at the owner's risk. If you are loaning equipment to the convention, please mark it with a printed label or write your contact information on masking tape attached to the item and any accessories so they may be returned to you. Be prepared to have your badge or other identification checked by the event's staff before you are allowed to remove equipment from the room.

Selling Merchandise/Services

Merchandise or services may only be sold at the convention in the Dealers Room, by the guidelines governing those areas. Local regulations state that it is illegal to sell merchandise or services outside of the convention's designated areas.
