A Message from the Vice Convention Chair

We're back! Everyone, it is my supreme honor and privilege to welcome you to MLP-MSP F!

Let's start with the most important part of the convention: you. Conventions only exist because of the wonderful attendees, sponsors, guests, vendors, panelists, performers, and staff who come together to create a truly magical weekend, and I can't thank all of you enough for coming. Once you settle in for your first panel or take that first trip around the vendor hall, I hope you'll stop for a moment to look around, smile, and appreciate the incredibly special, thriving fandom that has made all of this possible - a fandom that you are a part of.

MLP-MSP F is jam-packed with fun and surprises, from our Guest of Honor panels to our gaming tournaments to our Kids programming. Every single event is unique, and whether you feel like dancing at our TWO amazing concerts or delving deep into adventure in our tabletop room, go for it! There are new friends and new experiences waiting for you at every turn.

One more quick aside: when you see someone wearing a staff shirt this weekend, please do me a favor and thank them for their wonderful work. MLP-MSP F couldn't operate without our 85+ staff members, and I'm eternally grateful for the countless hours they've put into the convention. Let us know if we can help, too. Part of our job is make sure you have everything you need to enjoy the weekend.

MLP-MSP was my first pony convention, and it will always hold a special place in my heart. Several attendees are about to experience the magic for this first time, but whether this is your first convention or your fiftieth, I hope you're ready for a life-changing weekend of fun and excitement. Please allow me to say it one more time: thank you so much for coming, and welcome to MLP-MSP F!

Meet at the Prairie Heart Room 20 minutes early for a meal you won't forget!

Saturday - Prairie Heart Room
7:30 PM to 8:30 PM

JOIN TWO OF THE FANDOM'S BIGGEST BEER NERDS TO SHARE IN SOME OF YOURS AND OTHERS' EXCELLENT BEER / CIDER / MEAD!

Inevitably, craft beer drinkers will end up with a collection of bottles in their "cellar" (either literal or figurative) that are too special too waste on an evening home alone. Bottle Shares are the perfect opportunity to share some of your special, rare, and hard to come by beers with your fellow craft beer drinkers.

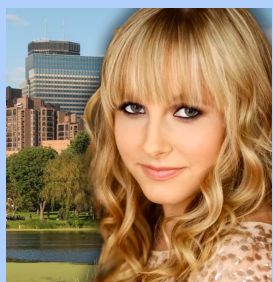

So fellow beer geeks, this is your chance to get together with some like-minded craft beer lovers to share some favorite, special, and rare brews!

- DO Come with at least as much beer as you expect to drink responsibly.
- DO bring great beer to share. This is not the time to unload the three leftover beers from that sampler 12-pack you bought two months ago. If you want to participate and don't have anything stashed away, go to a place that has a good selection of craft beer and tell them what you're doing. They'll likely be able to help you pick out a beer or two that would be appropriate.
- DO make sure you bring enough beer. At least a 22oz bottle or two regular bottles/cans of each style you bring would be recommended.
- DO Feel free to grab something from a local brewery or bottle shop if you can't bring something to con – just try to have it be something not super common, as the intention is for people to try things that they haven't tried before.
- DO Try to bring your contributions chilled if possible, but if not don't worry, we will have ice baths that can get things cold pretty quickly.
- DO embrace the noobs if you're a vet. These events can be intimidating for people who are just starting their love affair with craft beer. They need encouragement, validation, and education.
- DON'T bring any kind of hard liquor / moonshine. This is for beer, cider, mead, and other similar things only.
- DON'T get bent out of shape if your bottle doesn't get tasted. We've been to bottle shares where there were six people and thirty bottles of high-gravity beers. Not all bottles will be tasted. And if yours is one that isn't, it's okay. Consider leaving it as a gift for the hosts.

When bringing back MLP-MSP for a final year, it seemed only fitting to stick with the charity that was supported by our previous events. For the final time, we are proud to support Give Us Wings with our Charity Auction as well as a portion of ticket sales from the Fuzzy Logic Escape Room!

Give us wings is a nonprofit 501(c) 3 organization that works together with adults and children in Kenya and Uganda to eradicate poverty. Through person-to-person support, both financial and educational, people overcome poverty and become self-sufficient.

The Give Us Wings' approach is one of transformation, rather than merely direct aid. They work with community-based organizations to identify areas of need and to select specific projects and programs designed to address the unique challenges presented to those communities. Give Us Wings has developed strong, long-term relationships with the members of our partner communities. Give Us Wings funds community development projects, provides financial assistance and training for economic self-sufficiency, and funds educational costs and medical services for adults and children in Kenya and Uganda. The ultimate goal of all our projects and programs is to empower our partners so that they can advocate for themselves and develop the knowledge and skills necessary to manage the projects independently.

A Very Special Thanks to our Triple Diamond & Crystal Heart Sponsors!
