The Final Taboo – Therianthropy and Furrydom

 Panel 1 (Piedmont I)

Admitting that you are a Furry or a Therian online or IRL can be a daunting proposition. It seems to be one of the few groups that it is still OK to openly mock and even hate. The goal of this panel is to have an open discussion on why this may happen and how we, as a collective community, can begin to counteract it. As a middle-aged therian, being open about who I am has been a goal (and a struggle) my entire life, but I think being open helps to (ironically) humanize us to the masses. The hope is that the participants in our talk can also share some of their stories of discrimination and how they might have overcome this with some people. Even if it is a little thing, it may help the person next to you to also overcome some obstacles they are facing. It is how we as a community help each other. This will be a safe space for all to discuss their experiences and thoughts and hopefully we can come up with some actionable goals to keep improving the perception of therians and furies for future generations!

Fursuit Parade

 Other (see description)

The layout of our hotel this year is rather unique and elongated, so we will have both a fair weather and poor weather parade paths planned! Please keep an eye on our announcements to make sure you are aware of where the parade will go and where will be best to watch it. In the event of needing to keep the parade entirely indoors, we will need to have the parade go both ways down several of our hallways, in which case those hallways will need to be kept empty of spectators! So please follow any Ranger instructions in case of the poor weather parade route.

Furry Flea Market

 Panel 2 (Piedmont II)

~Khajiit Has Wares~ The Furry Flea Market returns! It takes place on Sunday of the convention. Here, you can set up and sell your old furry stuff, video games, figures, plush, cosplays and more! Basically, imagine it as a big furry yard sale. The spirit of the flea market is to allow individuals to sell items they may no longer want or need. It is not intended to be a space for those who wish to act as vendors. While there is naturally some fuzziness around the edges of rules like this, Fur the More will take action within the spirit of the rules, and Fur the More staff have final say regarding whether something is allowed under the rules' intent, regardless of the letter of the rule. RULES To sell your stuff in the flea market, a $5 donation to the charity fund will be asked. Tentative Times: Sign in begins at 12:30pm in the hallway. We will let members in to place their items as soon as the room is made available to it. Doors Open to the public at 1pm. Please note that the Piedmont hallway is small and a long line will go down to the foyer on the main floor; please do not cram onto the stairs, (think single file and several feet apart,) and be courteous to any attendees that need to use the small elevator to get upstairs! Event ends at 3:30pm. These times may be subject to change as the convention date draws closer HOW TO SELL: You must first check in with Furry Flea Market Staff before the event opens to the public. They are located at a table outside of the event room. Sign off on a form that you understand the rules (also posted below). Enter the room and pick a spot, you cannot have more than a 3x3 space along the walls or at a table (depending on the set up). If by 1:30, the other half of your table/space is empty or if there is an empty table elsewhere in the room, you may spread out to cover a whole table. CAN I SELL IN THE HALLWAYS? We cannot allow people to set up and sell in the hallways. BRINGING YOUR ITEMS IN You must be able to bring your items in a method that you can carry- in your arms, a small milkcrate size rolling crate (ex https://images-na.ssl-images-amazon.com/images/I/61Q65srCfsL._SL1001_.jpg) or a standard size rolling suitcase. You cannot bring large displays or any set ups. This is for individuals to sell/trade items, not for being a dealer or taking art commissions. MERCHANDISE RULES PERMITTED: Personal merchandise Video games and related merchandise Cosplays and props Fashion items, clothing or accessories Used fursuits or any of their components Comic Book and Sci Fi merchandise Books, including graphic novels, manga, etc Basically the type of things you might have in a rummage or yard sale. NOT PERMITTED: Bootleg merchandise Crafted items or art (either by you or someone else) that are part of your normal business Raffles, lotteries, games of chance, or any other ticketed items. Solicitation for donations. Again: The spirit of the flea market is to allow individuals to sell items they may no longer want or need. It is not intended to be a space for those who wish to act as vendors. While there is naturally some fuzziness around the edges of rules like this, Fur the More will take action within the spirit of the rules, and Fur the More staff have final say regarding whether something is allowed under the rules' intent, regardless of the letter of the rule. TIPS: Make sure you have change. You can use PayPal or your own method to take card payments. Fur the More is not responsible for disputes between individuals. Any arguments or disputes in the hall will result in all parties involved being removed from the room. Selling personal items between individuals typically doesn't require you to collect sales tax, however, you may be subject to regulations in your home state for income. You are responsible for ensuring compliance, we are ONLY providing a space for your to meet other people in.
