The Great Fursuit Make-off

 Panel 1 (Harbour Ballroom) (1 Harbour Square, Toronto, ON M5J 1A6)

Watch as teams create a fursuit before our eyes using nothing but scraps! Hot glue, duct tape, and a dream is all our competitors will have at their disposal to create an animal costume out of garbage. A panel of judges will determine which fursuit is the least ugly while the rest of us enjoy the worst fursuit parade we've ever seen. Only one team will take home the trophy at The Great Fursuit Make Off.

 12:00pm - 5:00pm

Lounge

 Pier 4&5 (1 Harbour Square, Toronto, ON M5J 1A6)

 12:30pm - 1:30pm

Board Games! - So Retro, Most Don't Even Have Screens!

 Panel 3 (Pier 7&8) (1 Harbour Square, Toronto, ON M5J 1A6)

I like board games. They are Bodacious, tubular, radical, gnarly - and...just the bees knees. Join me as I go through some commonly played example board games and their mechanics, and a deeper discussion on what makes a good board game and good game night. Geared towards new players, however, perhaps some experienced board masters may learn and/or share a thing or two - or at very least perhaps find a new group to enjoy board games with.

 12:30pm - 6:00pm

Dealer Den

 Metro Ballroom (1 Harbour Square, Toronto, ON M5J 1A6)

 1:30pm - 2:30pm

Effective Writing

 Panel 3 (Pier 7&8) (1 Harbour Square, Toronto, ON M5J 1A6)

Anyone can put words to paper, but it takes a lot of effort, and quite a lot of skill, to put the right words in the right order. A writer needs to engage the audience and keep that audience's attention to the very last sentence. Uncle Kage has had a fair number of stories published in both the mainstream and in Furry circles, and will here present some helpful tips for making your story come to life. Spoiler alert: your high school English teacher was right.
