Puppy play? What's that? [18+]

 Harbor A/B

 Nox In A Box

As the title holder of pup Canada 2024, I would like to give a small course on the different aspect of puppy play (social, bdsm, sexual, therapeutic) and give people a lists of the basic equipment you must have to begin playing on all fours safely (such a knee pads, protective glove, etc). I would like to be there to answer questions, showcase available puppy play gear (nothing sexual, just gear related to the puppy) and try to interest people in the community since it is a misconception that the community is only sexual. The fandom has changed a lot in the past year and the amount of « social pups » have increased a lot and the social/therapeutic benefits of it could help a lot of people in my opinion! Of course, since the main part of the community is based around bdsm, it would be an 18+ panel.
