Two Rooms and a Boom

 Narita Room (Gaming)

In Two Rooms and a Boom – a social deduction/hidden role party game for six or more players – there are two teams: the Red Team and the Blue Team. The Blue Team has a President. The Red Team has a Bomber. Players are equally distributed between two rooms (i.e., separate playing areas). The game consists of five timed rounds. At the end of each round, some players will be swapped into opposing rooms. If the Red Team's Bomber is in the same room as the President at the end of the game, then the Red Team wins; otherwise the Blue Team wins. Lying encouraged

 3:00pm - 6:00pm

Your Imagined Furry Fantasy

 Charles de Gaulle (Gaming)

This light-hearted RPG-esque system designed by SteelTheWarrior was borne of frisky fantasy, silly stories of over-the-top shenanigans and inspired by popular flash games like Corruption of Champions, Trials in Tainted Space and Flexible Survival! Gameplay gives players a different perspective on the psychology behind modern-day sexuality and taboo as they adventure in a world where just about everything is over-sexualized (including combat!) to offer silly-fun and sex-positive escapades!

"I Don't Have Ducks in a Row, I Have Squirrels at a Rave" - Life With, and Understanding, ADHD

 O'Hare Room (Programming) (Hyatt Regency O'Hare - Lobby Level)

Part comedy, part education, and part "oh wow, I thought it was just me." We'll talk about what ADHD actually is (and isn't), why executive function feels like trying to herd caffeinated ferrets, and how living with ADHD impacts relationships, creativity, work, and daily life. Whether you've been diagnosed, are still figuring it out, or just love someone who has a brain like a browser with 200 tabs open, you'll leave with a clearer understanding, some practical tools, and hopefully a sense of solidarity. Come for the laughs, stay for the science, and maybe walk away feeling a little less like a rave squirrel and a little more like you can work with the ones you've got.

 5:00pm - 6:30pm

Otter Chaos!

 Grand Ballroom (Main Stage) (Hyatt Regency O'Hare - Entry Level)

Diplomacy

 DaVinci (Gaming)

In the game "Diplomacy" you will assume control of one of the 7 major European powers on the eve of World War I with the objective to control a majority of the game's "supply centers" through cunning negotiation, complex alliances, and outright betrayal. Each round or "season" will take place away from the board as you scheme, negotiate and form agreements with the other players. Then when the timer sounds all players will return to the board, write orders for their armies and fleets then reveal them simultaneously to determine the outcome of battles and movements. Diplomacy contains no dice or any random elements, relying entirely on player interaction, pure strategy, and your own negotiation abilities.

 5:30pm - 6:30pm

FurRX: Healthcare Furs Social

 Room 29 (28,29) (Programming) (DESCC - Level 2)

Calling all nurses, doctors, EMTs, therapists, vets, med students, and healthcare-adjacent furies! Whether you sling stethoscopes by day or just love helping others, this is your prescription for fun and connection. You Don't Have To Be Nice - A Panel On Setting Boundaries for Artists

 Room 7 (Programming) (DESCC - Level 1)

Are you an artist in the fandom? Do you have trouble dealing with pushy clients, people nagging you about your work, or inappropriate comments on your pieces? Come learn some tips on how to professionally (but firmly) shut down these sorts of interactions, and how to decline requests from people you don't want to work with. Never trade your happiness for a paycheck! You shouldn't be mean, but once somebody makes you feel uncomfortable, you don't have to be nice. Discretion Advised - This event may contain some content that may be disturbing to some Guests including coarse Language, crude content and/or material or humor that may be seen as harsh, rude, or offensive.

 6:30pm - 7:30pm

The Horse Herd Run

 Room 5 (5,6,9,10) (Programming) (DESCC - Level 1)

All horses, unicorns, ponies, zebras, and other equine critters and clip cloppers are welcome to join us on our horse herd run! (You don't have to run, it will be mostly a walk) We will be meeting at the panel room, taking a group photo, then proceeding throughout the convention, collecting donations for the convention's charity along the way, then returning to the panel room! The first 20 minutes will be waiting for all horses to arrive, at which point we'll be taking the photo, then the run (walk) will take place. Donations for this year's Charity are encouraged and accepted during this event.

 7:00pm - 7:30pm

Puppetry Meet and Greet

 Room 29 (28,29) (Programming) (DESCC - Level 2)

Want to get involved with puppetry but unsure how to start? Already a pro and want to connect with your fellow puppeteers in the fandom to talk shop and share your projects? Come chat with The Furry Puppetry Group and learn about fun ways to get involved with puppetry in the fandom! We're a community of performers, builders, and puppetry enthusiasts of all skill levels bringing puppetry shenanigans to conventions around the country. Bring a puppet if you'd like, or just bring your enthusiasm!

 7:00pm - 8:00pm

Blind/Low Vision Furs Meetup

 LAX Room (Programming) (Hyatt Regency O'Hare - Entry Level)

Are you a furry who is blind, low-vision, or just curious about how vision loss intersects with furry creativity and community? Come join us for an honest, funny, and supportive discussion. We'll swap stories about how we navigate conventions, art, fursuiting, and online spaces, share tips for accessibility, and celebrate the unique perspectives blind/low-vision furries bring to the fandom. Allies and sighted friends welcome!

 7:00pm - 8:00pm

Harm Reduction for your Villainous Vacation (18+ Only)

 O'Hare Room (Programming) (Hyatt Regency O'Hare - Lobby Level)

If you're partying hard this weekend with booze, drugs, and/or sex, stop by our harm reduction panel! We'll talk about how 'set', 'setting', and 'dose' moderate the effects of alcohol, marijuana, and other commonly used 'party' drugs. We'll also review ways to reduce the risks of using these substances alongside a discussion of safer sex practices. Like any good party, you'll come away with a few party favors like condoms, Narcan, and fentanyl testing strips! Please be aware that any discussion of where to source illicit drugs from will not be tolerated during the panel. This panel is intended for those 18 years of age or older only.

 7:00pm - 8:00pm

Nub confessional, solo travel as a female in the fandom

 Room 8 (Programming) (DESCC - Level 1)

Stories and advice. I've been traveling solo for work, conventions and fun most of my adult life. As a strong woman there are still things that scare me and probably you as well! Come hear stories, tips, advice and maybe you have some tips to share as well! Let's empower each other and talk about the good the bad and the downright terrifying aspects of solo travel! Discretion Advised - This event may contain some content that may be disturbing to some Guests including coarse Language, crude content and/or material or humor that may be seen as harsh, rude, or offensive.

WHY AREN'T YOU WEARING PANTS?!: A Discussion of "Bottomless" Characters

 O'Hare Room (Programming) (Hyatt Regency O'Hare - Lobby Level)

Have you ever wondered why cartoon characters like Bugs Bunny, Sonic the Hedgehog, Slappy Squirrel or Pepe Le Pew appear to not wear any clothes? Or even why characters like Donald Duck, Sly Cooper, or even Princess Sally Acorn wear clothes above the waist but nothing below? Ever wonder exactly why we never question it? And why does it seem to be limited to mostly male characters and not female? Let's discuss this! This panel is a PG to PG-13 audience participation about one of the most interesting but rarely talked about fashion choices for animated animal characters. Do you have a fursona or OC that fits the "clothesless" or "bottomless" description? Were you inspired by any of these characters? Come on in and let's talk about it!

ADHD & You & Me - Executive Dysfunction and Relationships

 O'Hare Room (Programming) (Hyatt Regency O'Hare - Lobby Level)

Love is patient, love is kind... except when executive dysfunction eats your to-do list, makes you late again, and leaves the dishwasher half-unloaded. ADHD doesn't just affect the person with the diagnosis—it reshapes how partners, friends, and polycules communicate, plan, and cope. This panel explores the very real ways ADHD shows up in relationships: missed signals, forgotten chores, intense hyperfocus, emotional storms, and that eternal "I meant to text you back three days ago." We'll break down what executive dysfunction actually is, how it complicates connection, and how couples (or triads, or pods) can navigate it with humor, clarity, and compassion. Whether you have ADHD yourself, love someone who does, or are just tired of fighting with time and laundry, you'll find strategies, solidarity, and maybe even some hope. Bring your questions, your stories, and your sense of humor—we'll need them all.

 6:00pm - 7:30pm
