From "Nation" to "Planet:" Writing the "Furry Nation" Sequel

 Hyatt – Seatac

Joe Strike is a certified greymuzzle. He's been part of the Furry community since 1988 when he received a surprise invitation to the very first east coast furry party. After watching our subculture spread across the world, Joe wrote "Furry Nation," his 2017 account of Furry's birth, its earliest days and the first generation of furs who made it all happen. Since then our community has grown ever larger; every day more and more people across the globe realize their furriness and launch their own conventions. With more Furry in the world than ever before, Joe is in the midst of writing "Furry Planet," scheduled for a 2022 release by Apollo Publishers. Joe will describe the challenge of documenting our dynamic community, reaching people who have brought Furry to their own country, and the hurdles and rewards they faced along the way. "Planet" will also examine aspects of Furry overlooked in "Furry Nation:" furry authors, entrepreneurs and therians, as well as the increasing presence of anthropomorphism in popular and high culture, from superhero films to performance art. (Attendees are welcome to suggest additional topics for "Furry Planet" to explore.)

 Hyatt - DFW

Can you draw, doodle or scribble? Are you quick-witted? Play well with others? Then join the Collaboration Confuzilcation! Here's how it works: every player will receive a formatted, 4-panel sheet of paper; a word will be chosen at random and each player will have twelve minutes to draw a picture in the first panel based on that word. THEN everyone passes their paper to the next person...a new word is selected and that person draws a picture in the next panel based on the new word...that also continues the story started in the previous panel! The challenge: each panel has to continue the previous panel's story - while drawing a picture based on the new word at the same time! The process is repeated for the third and fourth panels, until the page is filled with a masterpiece of collaborative creativity (and weirdness!) We'll supply that formatted drawing paper, but please bring your own pens, pencils and erasers. Participation is limited to the first 36 people to arrive, but everyone is welcome to stay and observe.

Why You Need Career Counseling

 Hyatt – John Wayne

How well is your job working for YOU? The average adult in the United States spends over 90,000 hours “at work” over the course of their lifetime. The only other activity we spend more total time doing is sleeping. So regardless of whether we “work to live” or “live to work”, it’s worth being thoughtful about how we want to spend all that time and energy. Your presenter, Orthrus (aka Ben Howard, MA, MAEd, LPC) has served as a college educator, academic advisor and career coach since 2011 and a mental health practitioner since 2018. Join us for a discussion of the career counseling process, the inclusion of values into work, and steps you can take right now to define and improve your professional direction and opportunities.
